

definition of a debt instrument by section 1275(a)(1)(B)(ii).

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that Company X is a foreign insurance corporation controlled by a U.S. shareholder. Company X does not make an election under section 953(d) to be treated as a domestic corporation. The controlling U.S. shareholder is required under sections 953 and 954 to include income earned on the annuity contract in its taxable income under subpart F. However, Company X is not subject to tax under subchapter L with respect to income earned on the annuity contract. Thus, the annuity contract is not excepted from the definition of a debt instrument by section 1275(a)(1)(B)(ii).

Example 5. The facts are the same as in Example 4, except that Company X properly elects under section 953(d) to be treated as a domestic corporation. By reason of its election, Company X is subject to tax under subchapter L with respect to income earned on the annuity contract. Thus, the annuity contract is excepted from the definition of a debt instrument by section 1275(a)(1)(B)(ii).

(3) Effective date. This paragraph (k) is applicable for interest accruals on or after the date that is 30 days after final regulations are published in the Federal Register. This paragraph (k) does not apply to an annuity contract that was purchased before January 12, 2001. For purposes of this paragraph (k), if any additional investment in a contract purchased before January 12, 2001 is made on or after January 12, 2001, and the additional investment is not required to be made under a binding written contractual obligation that was entered into before that date, then the additional investment is treated as the purchase of a contract after January 12, 2001.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background and Purpose

On December 18, 1996, the IRS and the Treasury Department published the elective regime under section 7701 known as the check-the-box regulations. 61 FR 66584. Generally, the check-the-box regulations allow any business entity to elect to be treated for Federal tax purposes as a corporation, a partnership (if it has two or more members), or a disregarded entity (if it has a single owner). This document proposes to amend the current Procedure and Administration Regulations (26 CFR Part 301) to address the treatment of an entity wholly owned by a foreign government (as defined in § 1.892-2T) and a nonbank entity wholly owned by a foreign bank.

This document also proposes to provide that a partnership can be a controlled commercial entity under section 892.

Explanation of Provisions

A. § 301.7701-2

Section 301.7701-2(b) of the check-the-box regulations specifies that certain business entities are classified as per se corporations for Federal tax purposes (i.e., those business entities that are not permitted to elect a noncorporate Federal tax classification). Section 301.7701-2(b)(6) classifies a business entity wholly owned by a State or any of its political subdivisions as a per se corporation. However, the regulations do not specify that the phrase State or any political subdivision thereof includes a foreign government.

The IRS and Treasury believe that it is appropriate to treat a foreign government similarly to a State in this context. Thus, to achieve parallel tax treatment under the check-the-box regulations of a business entity wholly owned by a State or any of its political subdivisions and a business entity wholly owned by a foreign government, these proposed regulations provide that a business entity wholly owned by a foreign government cannot elect to be treated as a disregarded entity.

The check-the-box regulations also provide a special rule for the treatment of nonbank entities that are wholly owned by banks. In particular, § 301.7701-2(c)(2)(ii) provides that a bank cannot treat a wholly owned nonbank entity as a disregarded entity for purposes of applying the special rules of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) applicable to banks. The term bank for this purpose is defined in section 581 to include only domestic entities. Section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(ii) does not explicitly restrict foreign banks from treating their wholly owned nonbank entities as disregarded entities for all tax purposes (because foreign banks are not defined as banks under section 581).

As with the rule described for foreign governments, the IRS and Treasury believe that nonbank entities wholly owned by domestic banks and foreign banks should be treated similarly in this context. These regulations incorporate a reference to section 585(a)(2)(B) (which includes certain foreign banks that are engaged in a U.S. trade or business in the definition of the term bank) in § 301.7701-2(c)(2)(ii). As a result, neither domestic banks nor foreign banks engaged in a U.S. trade or business can treat wholly owned nonbank entities as disregarded entities for purposes of applying the special rules of the Code applicable to banks.

B. § 1.892-5(a)

Section 1.892-5T(a) currently provides that for purposes of defining the term controlled commercial entity, the term entity encompasses corporations and trusts (including pension trusts described in § 1.892-2T(c)) and estates. To ensure that investments in the United States by a foreign government through separate juridical entities are treated similarly, these proposed regulations under § 1.892-5(a) provide that, for purposes of section 892(a)(2)(B), the term entity also includes a partnership.

Proposed Effective Dates

The regulations that address the Federal tax classification of business entities wholly owned by a foreign government under § 301.7701-2 are proposed to apply on or after the earlier of January 14, 2002 or the date these regulations are published as final regulations in the Federal Register to such business entities regardless of any prior entity classification, and the regulations that address the definition of the term entity for purposes of section 892(a)(2)(B) are proposed to apply on or after the earlier of January 14, 2002 or the date these regulations are published as final regulations in the Federal Register. The regulations relating to a nonbank entity that is wholly owned by a foreign bank are proposed to apply to taxable years beginning after January 12, 2001.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because these regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Code, these regulations will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact on small business.

Comments and Public Hearing

Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to any written comments (preferably a signed original and eight (8) copies) that are submitted timely to the IRS. The IRS and Treasury Department request comments on the clarity of the proposed rules and how they may be made easier to understand. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying.

A public hearing has been scheduled for May 16, 2001, beginning at 10 a.m., in room 6718, Internal Revenue Building, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC. Because of access restrictions, visitors will not be admitted beyond the Internal Revenue Building lobby more than fifteen (15) minutes before the hearing starts.

The rules of 26 CFR 601.601(a)(3) apply to the hearing.

Persons that wish to present oral comments at the hearing must submit timely written comments and an outline of the topics to be discussed and the time to be devoted to each topic (preferably a signed original and eight (8) copies) by April 25, 2001.

A period of ten (10) minutes will be allotted to each person for making comments.

An agenda showing the scheduling of the speakers will be prepared after the deadline for receiving outlines has passed. Copies of the agenda will be available free of charge at the hearing.

The principal author of these regulations is Camille B. Evans of the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (International). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Requirements Relating to Certain Exchanges Involving a Foreign Corporation

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Withdrawal of notice of proposed regulations.

SUMMARY: This document withdraws proposed regulations under section 367(c). The proposed regulations correspond to temporary regulations that are also being removed in this issue of the Federal Register. The temporary regulations are being removed because they are no longer necessary and, as a result, may be misleading.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mark D. Harris at (202) 622-3860 (not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 30, 1977, the IRS and Treasury published in the Federal Register proposed regulations (42 FR 65204) and temporary regulations (42 FR 65152) under section 367(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. The principal purpose of these regulations, §§ 7.367(c)-1 and 7.367(c)-2, was to distinguish between the treatment of transfers described in section 367(c) before and after the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 (the Act) (90 Stat. 1634). Before enactment of the Act, transfers described in section 367(c) were subject to a ruling requirement. After enactment of the Act, transfers described in section 367(c) were within the scope of §§ 7.367(b)-1 through 7.367(b)-12. In light of the substantial time that has passed since enactment of the Act and, moreover, in light of the fact that §§ 1.367(b)-1 through 1.367(b)-6 have substantially superceded §§ 7.367(b)-1 through 7.367(b)-12, §§ 7.367(c)-1 and 7.367(c)-2 are no longer necessary and may be misleading.

Accordingly, the IRS and Treasury are removing temporary regulations §§ 7.367(c)-1 and 7.367(c)-2 in this issue of the Federal Register. Correspondingly, this document removes proposed regulations §§ 7.367(c)-1 and 7.367(c)-2.
