

and snowcoaches, collectively OSVs). The final rule includes provisions that allow greater flexibility for commercial tour operators, provide mechanisms to make the park cleaner and quieter during the winter seasons, reward OSV innovations and technologies, and allow increases in visitation. All OSVs operating in the park are required to meet air and sound emission standards and be accompanied by a guide. As directed by the regulation, commercial OSV operators must complete the Form 10–650, “OSV Monthly Use Report” to:

- Transportation Events (§ 7.13(l)(11)(i)–(iii))
- Emission and Sound Standards (§ 7.13(l)(4)(vii) and (5)) and
- Enhanced Emission Standards. (§ 7.13(l)(11)(iv)).

Form 10–605, “OSV Monthly Use Report” collects information to: (1) Ensure that OSVs meet NPS emission standards to operate in the park; (2) evaluate commercial tour operators’ compliance with allocated transportation events and daily and seasonal OSV group size limits; (3) ensure that established daily transportation event limits for the park are not exceeded; (4) confirm that commercial tour operators do not run out of authorizations before the end of the season and create a gap when prospective visitors cannot be accommodated; and (5) guarantee compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Abstract: The National Park Service Organic Act, 54 U.S.C. 100101(a) et seq., requires that the NPS preserve national parks for the enjoyment, education, and inspiration of this and future generations. In order to monitor resources and wildlife in the Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve (GLBA) and to enhance the safety of future visitors, the park records all bear sightings and interactions by visitors.

Authorized by 36 CFR 1–7, 12 and 13, Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve (GLBA) collects bear sighting data submitted by park visitors. The information collected is used to determine bear movements, habitat use, and species distribution to minimize conflict between bears and visitors within the park. NPS Forms 10–405, “Tatshenshini—Alsek River Bear Report” and 10–406, “Bear Information Management Report” exercises our statutory authority and responsibility to protect the park areas we administer and to manage public use.

Bear sighting data provides the park with important information used to determine bear movements, habitat use, and species distribution. This information is important for backcountry management and planning, field research planning, and educational outreach for visitors. Bear-human interaction data is vital to understanding bear responses to people, detecting changes in bear behavior, and identifying areas of high bear-human conflict. Obtaining immediate information on bear-human conflicts allows managers to respond promptly to mitigate further conflicts. Proactive mitigation includes notifying other backcountry users, issuing advisories or recommendations, or issuing closures to prevent further conflicts and maintain public safety. Observations and interactions by visitors are recorded using two forms: (1) NPS Form 10–405 “Tatshenshini—Alsek River Bear Report” collects information regarding bear sightings within GLBA and (2) NPS Form 10–406 “Bear Information Management Report” collects information when a bear enters a camp, approaches the group, damages gear, obtains food, and/or acts in an aggressive or threatening manner towards the group.

Abstract: Each year, more than 7,000 visitors to the various units of the National Park System file reports of lost or found items.
