Carestream Health, Inc. Medical X-Ray Division Windsor, CO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on September 11, 2008, applicable to workers of Carestream Health, Inc., X-Ray/Mammography Film Division, Windsor, Colorado. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 24, 2008 (73 FR 55136).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of medical x-ray film.

New information shows that the subject firm name was not identified in its entirety. The company official confirmed that the correct name of the subject firm should read "Carestream Health, Inc., Medical X-Ray Division, Windsor, Colorado".

Based on this information, the Department is amending the certification to correctly identify the name of the subject firm and extend worker adjustment assistance eligibility to all workers of Carestream Health, Inc., Medical X-Ray Division, Windsor, Colorado.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,832 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Carestream Health, Inc., Medical X-Ray Division, Windsor, Colorado who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 6, 2007, through September 11, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 28th day of June, 2010.

Richard Church,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

CRH North America Inc., Including On-Site Leased Workers from KForce and Global Technology Associates, Warren, Michigan; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 11, 2010, applicable to workers of CRH North America Inc., including on-site leased workers from KForce, Warren, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register April 23, 2010 (75 FR 21356).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in activities related to research, development, and administrative services (i.e. accounting, purchasing, and sales services).

The company reports that workers leased from Global Technology Associates were employed on-site at the Warren, Michigan location of CRH North America Inc. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Global Technology Associates working on-site at the Warren, Michigan location of CRH North America Inc.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,774 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of CRH North America Inc., including on-site leased workers from KForce and Global Technology Associates, Warren, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 14, 2008, through March 11, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 28th day of June 2010.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Wapakoneta Machine Company, Currently Known as EF Industrial Technologies, Inc., Wapakoneta, OH; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on May 17, 2010, applicable to workers of Wapakoneta Machine Company, Wapakoneta, Ohio. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 7, 2010 (75 FR 32223).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of machine knives.

New information shows that as of early 2010, Wapakoneta Machine Company is currently known as EF Industrial Technologies, Inc. Some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name EF Industrial Technologies, Inc.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of machine knives.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-73,211 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Wapakoneta Machine Company, currently known as EF Industrial Technologies, Inc., Wapakoneta, Ohio became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 8, 2008, through May 17, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date
