

Permit(s)” containing additional design considerations, which the leaseholder will be required to incorporate into final project design, construction, and decommissioning plans.

(13) Once a POD is submitted, the BLM will determine whether a long-term monitoring strategy to establish quantitative monitoring objectives and indicators would need to be developed. The leaseholder or developer will be required to collect baseline data for this effort, in coordination with the BLM and other applicable agencies. For an example, see https://blmsolar.anl.gov/documents/docs/Final_Riverside_East_LTMS_from_website.pdf.

(14) If a POD is approved, the leaseholder or developer would be required to obtain all necessary State or Federal permits before engaging in any stream alteration or other activities affecting waterways.

(15) Prior to any ground-disturbing activity associated with an authorized POD, the leaseholder or developer will identify and protect evidence of the Public Land Survey System, as directed in 43 CFR 3809.420—Surface Management—(b)(9) Protection of survey monuments.

Additionally, the leaseholder will be subject to any measures the BLM identifies to address site-specific impacts to resources as part of the environmental review of leaseholder’s proposed plan of development for the SEZ.

(Authority: 43 CFR 2809)

Douglas Vilsack,

BLM Colorado State Director.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Water Act

On March 20, 2023, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas in the lawsuit entitled United States, Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality, State of Maryland, and State of Nevada v. ABF Freight System, Inc., Civil Action No. 2:23–cv–02039–PKH.

This case relates to compliance with Clean Water Act requirements applicable to discharges of stormwater associated with industrial activity from transportation facilities operated by ABF Freight Systems, Inc. (ABF). ABF operates a national network of more than 200 freight terminals spread across the country. The Complaint alleges claims at nine of ABF’s freight terminals based on inspections by EPA and state agencies. The proposed Consent Decree would resolve claims at all ABF freight terminals listed in Appendix A of the Consent Decree through the date of lodging. The Consent Decree would also require ABF to pay a civil penalty of $535,000 and implement compliance measures at all freight terminals currently operated nationwide (except in those located in the state of Washington). The states of Louisiana, Maryland, and Nevada are Co-Plaintiffs.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States, Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality, State of Maryland, and State of Nevada v. ABF Freight System, Inc., D.J. Ref. No. 90–5–1–1–11432. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:

Please note that the above phone numbers are not toll free.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Coordinating Council on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (“Council”), established by statute in the Juvenile and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 section 206(a) (42 U.S.C. 5616(a)), will meet to carry out its advisory functions. Information regarding this meeting will be available on the Council’s web page at www.juvenilecouncil.gov. The meeting is open to the public, and available via online video conference, but prior registration is required (see below). In addition, meeting documents will be viewable via this website including meeting announcements, agendas, minutes and reports.

Although designated agency representatives may attend in lieu of members, the Council’s formal membership consists of the following secretaries and/or agency officials; Attorney General (Chair), Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (Vice Chair), Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS), Secretary of Labor, Secretary of Education, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Secretary of the Interior, Assistant Secretary for the Substance and Mental Health Services Administration of HHS, Director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy, Chief Executive Officer of AmeriCorps and the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Ten additional members are appointed by the President of the United States, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, the U.S. Senate Majority Leader and the Chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs of the Senate. Further agencies that take part in Council activities include the Departments of Agriculture and Defense.

Council meeting agendas are available on <https://juvenilecouncil.ojp.gov/>. Agendas will generally include: (a) Opening remarks and introductions; (b) Presentations and discussion of agency work; and (c) Council member announcements.

For security purposes and because space is limited, members of the public who wish to attend must register in advance of the meeting online at the meeting registration site, no later than Friday, April 14, 2023. Should issues arise with online registration, or to register by email, the public should contact Maegen Barnes, Project Manager/Federal Contractor (see above for contact information). If submitting registrations via email, attendees should include all of the following: Name, Title, Organization/Affiliation, Full Address, Phone Number, and Email. The meeting will also be available to join online via Webex, a video conferencing platform. Registration for this is also found online at <https://juvenilecouncil.ojp.gov/>.

Note: Photo identification will be required to attend the meeting at the Department of Labor Building.

Members of the public may submit written comments and questions in advance to Julie Herr (DFO) for the Council, at the contact information above. All comments and questions should be submitted no later than 5 p.m. ET on Friday, April 14, 2023.

Julie Herr,

Designated Federal Official, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.
