

These consent decrees settle claims against management agents and owners of several residential apartment buildings in the District of Columbia which were brought on behalf of the Department of Housing and Urban Development under the Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act 42 U.S.C. 4851 et seq. ("Lead Hazard Reduction Act"). The United States alleged in its complaints that each defendant failed to provide information to tenants concerning lead-based paint hazards.

Under the consent decrees, defendants have agreed to perform lead-based paint abatement and to pay HUD administrative penalties. The defendant in the United States v. Wm. Calomiris Investment Corp. case is the managing agent for more than 2,000 apartment units in the District of Columbia. Defendant has agreed to pay a $5,000 administrative penalty to HUD, to perform $10,000 in Child Health Improvement Projects by making a $5,000 contribution to the Children's National Medical Center and by making a $5,000 contribution to Healthy Babies Project, Inc., and to perform lead-based paint abatement work.

There are three defendants in the Borger case. Borger Management Inc., manages more than 2,300 apartment units at more than 30 apartment buildings in the District of Columbia. The other two defendants, Rolling Terrace LLC and Randolph Towers Apartments LLC, each own one of the buildings managed by Borger Management, Inc. Defendants have agreed to pay a $25,000 administrative penalty to HUD and to perform lead-based paint abatement work.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the consent decrees. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530, and should refer to (1) *United States v.
