

Order issued September 7, 2005 in this proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Protests to this filing will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Such protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of § 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing a protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). Continental Resources, Inc., Complainant, v. Bridger Pipeline, LLC, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

September 23, 2005.

Take notice that on September 19, 2005, Continental Resources, Inc., (Continental) pursuant to Rule 208 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures, 18 CFR 385.206 and 18 CFR 343.1(a), filed a complaint in this proceeding. Continental states that Bridger Pipeline, LLC (Bridger) has violated and continues to violate sections 1(5), 2, 3(3) and 15 of the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C., by charging unjust and unreasonable rates and charges for the interstate transportation of crude oil by pipeline and by including provisions in its tariffs which are unduly discriminatory and preferential.

Continental requests that the Commission: (1) Examine the challenged rates and charges collected by Bridger for transportation of crude oil and the challenged tariff provisions concerning crude oil sulfur restrictions applied to such transportation, (2) determine that Bridger's rates are unjust and unreasonable and that Bridger's challenged tariff provisions regarding crude oil sulfur restrictions are discriminatory and unduly preferential, (3) determine just, reasonable and non-discriminatory rates and tariff terms for Bridger's jurisdictional interstate services, (4) order reparations and/or refunds to Continental, including appropriate interest thereon, for the applicable reparations and refund period, (5) award Continental reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and (6) order such other relief as may be appropriate.

Continental states that it has served a copy of the Complaint on Bridger.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all parties to this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

[Docket No. EL05-145-000]

Emergency Petition and Complaint of the District of Columbia Public Service Commission; Notice of Proposed Restricted Service List

September 23, 2005.

Rule 2010 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (Commission) Rules of Practice and Procedure provides that, to eliminate unnecessary expenses or improve administrative efficiency, the Secretary may establish a restricted service list for a particular proceeding.¹ A restricted service list contains the names of persons who, in the judgment of the decisional authority establishing the list, are active participants with respect to the phase or issue in the proceeding for which the restricted service list is established.

Any person on the current official service list for the above-captioned proceedings may request inclusion on the restricted service list, or may request that a restricted service list not be established, by filing a motion stating the reason for the request within 15 days of the date of this notice.

The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings. The motions described above may be filed electronically via the Internet. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the eFiling link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. If a person cannot file a motion electronically, an original and 14 copies of any such motions must be filed with Magalie R. Salas, Secretary of the Commission, at 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC, 20426. All motions, electronic or paper, must be served on each person whose name appears on the current official service list in the above-docketed proceeding. If no such motions are filed, the restricted service list will be effective at the end of the 15-day
