General description of report: The Interagency Policy Statement on Funding and Liquidity Risk Management (Guidance) was issued to provide consistent interagency expectations on sound practices for managing funding and liquidity risk. The Guidance includes a number of voluntary recordkeeping provisions that apply to the respondents listed above. The recordkeeping provisions relate to liquidity risk management policies, procedures, and assumptions, and contingency funding plans.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The recordkeeping provisions of the Guidance are authorized pursuant to sections 9(6), 25, and 25A of the Federal Reserve Act ¹

(for state member banks, agreement corporations, and Edge corporations, respectively); section 5(c) of the Bank Holding Company Act ² (for bank holding companies); section 10(b)(3) of the Home Owners' Loan Act ³ (savings and loan holding companies), and section 7(c)(2) of the International Banking Act ⁴ (state-licensed branches and agencies of foreign banks, other than insured branches). The FR 4198 recordkeeping provisions are contained within guidance, which is nonbinding, and therefore are voluntary.

Because these records would be maintained at each banking organization, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) would only be implicated if the Board obtained such records as part of the examination or supervision of a banking organization. In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports" obtained in the bank supervisory process.⁵ In addition, the information may also be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the FOIA, which protects public commercial or financial information, which is both customarily and actually treated as private by the respondent.⁶
