

State program regulations. Individuals must successfully pass the third party exam applicable to the certification discipline in order to be certified. The State program sets forth work practice standards for persons performing lead-based paint activities. The State program requires the filing of a project notification, in writing, prior to the commencement of any lead-based paint abatement activity.

All initial and refresher lead-based paint activities training programs must be accredited. The State program requires training programs to notify the State prior to conducting a training course. Full approval of a training program's lead-based paint activities course is contingent on a satisfactory on-site course audit. The State program provides for the suspension, revocation, or modification of training program accreditation and certifications of individuals and firms.

The State lead program also conducts outreach and compliance assistance activities. The objective of the activities is to educate the public and regulated community of the hazards of lead-based paint. The activities also inform the public and regulated community of the regulatory requirements applicable to lead-based paint activities.

IV. Federal Overfiling

Section 404(b) of TSCA makes it unlawful for any person to violate, or fail or refuse to comply with, any requirement of an approved State or Tribal program. Therefore, EPA reserves the right to exercise its enforcement authority under TSCA against a violation of, or a failure or refusal to comply with, any requirement of an authorized State or Tribal program.

V. Submission to Congress and the Comptroller General

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before certain actions may take effect, the Agency promulgating the action must submit a report, which includes a copy of the action, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this action and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of this document in the Federal Register. This action is not a "major rule" as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Notice of Public Information Collection(s) Being Reviewed by the Federal Communications Commission

July 5, 2002.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burden invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collection(s), as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13. An agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) that does not display a valid control number. Comments are requested concerning (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

DATES: Written comments should be submitted on or before August 19, 2002. If you anticipate that you will be submitting comments, but find it difficult to do so within the period of time allowed by this notice, you should advise the contact listed below as soon as possible.

ADDRESSES: Direct all comments to Judith Boley Herman, Federal Communications Commission, Room 1-C804, 445 12th Street, SW., DC 20554 or via the Internet to jboley@fcc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Control No.: 3060-0787.

Title: Implementation of the Subscriber Carrier Selection Changes Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996; Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers Long Distance Carriers.

Form No.: FCC Form 478.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Individuals or households, businesses or other for-profit, State, local or tribal government.

Number of Respondents: 28,414.

Estimated Time Per Response: 7 hours per submission; 14 hours for other requirements.

Frequency of Response: On occasion and semi-annual reporting requirements, recordkeeping requirements, third party disclosure requirements.

Total Annual Burden: 135,126 hours.

Total Annual Cost: N/A.

Needs and Uses: The goal of section 258 is to eliminate the practice of "slamming", which is the unauthorized change of a subscriber's preferred carrier. The rules and requirements implementing section 258 can be found in 47 CFR part 64. The purpose of the rules is to improve the carrier change process for consumers and carriers alike, while making it more difficult for unscrupulous carriers to perpetrate slams. In addition, each telephone exchange carrier and/or telephone toll provider is required to submit a semi-annual report on the number of slamming complaints it receives.

Federal Communications Commission.
