

print and retain a copy of the acknowledgment receipt that appears on the screen after a successful submission. Customers will also receive an electronic copy of this receipt. The USPTO estimates that it will take 5 seconds (0.001 hours) to print a copy of the acknowledgment receipt and that approximately 35,278 submissions per year will be completed via EFS, EPAS, and ETAS, for a total of approximately 35 hours per year for printing this receipt. The USPTO expects that these receipts will be printed by paraprofessionals at an estimated rate of $81 per hour, for a recordkeeping cost of $2,835 per year for printing the acknowledgment receipts. Therefore, this collection has a total recordkeeping cost of $2,916.

This collection has filing fees associated with submitting patent and trademark assignment documents to be recorded. The filing fees for recording patent and trademark assignments are the same for both paper and electronic submissions. However, the filing cost for recording patent or trademark assignments varies according to the number of properties involved in each submission. The filing fee for submitting a trademark assignment as indicated by 37 CFR 2.6(b)(6) is $40 for recording the first property in a document and $25 for each additional property in the same document. The USPTO estimates that the average trademark assignment filing has one property plus five additional properties, for an average filing cost of $165 for a trademark assignment submission.

The filing fee for submitting a patent assignment as indicated by 37 CFR 1.21(h) is $40 for recording each property in a document. The USPTO estimates that paper and electronic patent assignment filings contain an average of 1.5 properties per submission, for an average filing cost of $60. The USPTO also estimates that oversized patent assignment requests on CD contain an average of 100 properties per submission, for an average filing cost of $4,000. The total estimated filing cost for this collection is $23,056,435 per year.

Customers may incur postage costs when submitting a patent or trademark assignment request to the USPTO by mail. The USPTO expects that some assignment requests will be submitted by fax but that approximately 215,622 of the 296,006 paper assignment requests per year will be submitted by mail. The USPTO estimates that the average first-class postage cost for a mailed Patent or Trademark Recordation Form Cover Sheet submission is 49 cents. The USPTO further estimates that 10 patent assignment requests on CD will be mailed to the USPTO per year and that the average first-class postage cost for a mailed CD submission is $1.52. The total postage cost for this collection is $105,670 per year.

The total non-hour respondent cost burden for this collection in the form of capital start-up costs, recordkeeping costs, filing fees, and postage costs is estimated to be $23,165,071 per year.
