Demonstration Grants will total $60M for FY2022 to FY2026. DOE shall award multiyear grants to anticipated eligible entities for research, development, and demonstration projects to create innovative and practical approaches to increase the reuse and recycling of batteries.

• Section (f)(3) titled State and Local Programs will total $50M for the period of FY2022 to FY2026. It is anticipated that DOE shall establish a program which will award grants, on a competitive basis, to the following anticipated entities of States and units of local government to assist in the establishment or enhancement of State battery collection, recycling, and reprocessing programs.

• Section (f)(4) titled Retailers As Collection Points will total $15M for the period of FY2022 to FY2026. DOE shall award grants, on a competitive basis. It is anticipated that these grants will be restricted to retailers that sell covered batteries or covered battery-containing products to establish and implement a system for the acceptance and collection of covered batteries and covered battery-containing products, as applicable, for reuse, recycling, or proper disposal.

• Section 40208 titled Electric Drive Vehicle Battery Recycling and Second-Life Program will total $200M for the period of FY2022 to FY2026. The DOE shall carry out a program of research, development, and demonstration of second-life applications for electric drive vehicle batteries that have been used to power electric drive vehicles; technologies and processes for final recycling and disposal of the [electric drive vehicle batteries] Specific questions can be found in the RFI. Corrections

In the Federal Register of September 2, 2022, in FR Doc. 2022–18969, on page 54209, please make the following correction:

In that notice under ADDRESSES, third column, third paragraph, the meeting address has been changed. The original address was Holiday Inn & Suites, 2225 Boundary Street, Beaufort, SC 29902. The new address is Embassy Suites, 605 W Oglethorpe Avenue, Savannah, GA 31401. The reason for the correction is the original venue can no longer host the meeting.
