[Docket No. EL06-29-000]

Entergy Louisiana, Inc.; Notice of Filing

December 21, 2005.

Take notice that on December 13, 2005, Entergy Louisiana, Inc. (ELI) submitted a Petition for Declaratory Order in which ELI has requested a determination that the payment of dividends by Entergy Louisiana, LLC out of Membership Interest accounts after it completes a corporate restructuring on or about December 31, 2005 will not violate section 305(a) of the Federal Power Act.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the “eFiling” link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

[Docket Nos. ER06-218-000 and ER06-219-000]

Liberty Power New York LLC and Liberty Power District of Columbia LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 16, 2005.

Liberty Power New York LLC (Liberty Power New York) and Liberty Power District of Columbia LLC (Liberty Power District) filed application for market-based rate authority, with accompanying rate tariffs. The proposed rate tariffs provide for the sales of capacity and energy at market-based rates. Liberty Power New York and Liberty Power District also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Liberty Power New York LLC and Liberty Power District requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Liberty Power New York and Liberty Power District.

On December 13, 2005, the Commission granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuance of securities or assumptions of liability by Liberty Power New York and Liberty Power District should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests is January 12, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Liberty Power New York and Liberty Power District are authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Liberty Power New York and Liberty Power District, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Liberty Power New York’s and Liberty Power District’s issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director’s Order are available from the Commission’s Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission’s Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission’s Web site under the “e-Filing” link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Magalie R. Salas,

Secretary.
