The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

Human remains representing, at least, one individual have been identified. No associated funerary objects are present. At an unknown date prior to 1934, human remains representing, at minimum, one individual, was removed from a cave in Duluth, Saint Louis County, Minnesota. On July 30th, 1934, E.C. Lee donated the remains to the Otter Tail Historical Society (OCHS 743). In March of 1987, the Otter Tail County Historical Society transferred the remains to the Minnesota Indian Affairs Council (H132).

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location of the human remains described in this notice.

Determinations

The Minnesota Indian Affairs Council has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry.
- There is a connection between the human remains described in this notice and the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe, Minnesota (Bois Forte Band (Nett Lake); Fond du Lac Band) and the Upper Sioux Community, Minnesota.
