

Right-to-Know Act ("EPCRA"), 42 U.S.C. 1101–11050; and Clean Water Act ("CWA"), 33 U.S.C. 1251–1387, and their implementing regulations. The complaint alleges numerous violations of federal and state environmental laws that occurred at Defendant's polyvinyl chloride ("PVC") manufacturing and resin compounding plant, which was formerly located at 26000 Springbrook Avenue, Saugus, Los Angeles County, California (the "Facility").

Under the proposed Consent Decree, all civil claims in the Complaint are resolved for the following payments to be made by Keysor in Keysor's Chapter 11 bankruptcy liquidation proceeding: a $307,000 administrative expense payment; the allowance of $735,420 classified as a subordinated allowed general unsecured claim; and the allowance of $168,855 classified as an allowed general unsecured claim. In addition, Keysor is subjected to injunctive relief, including: cessation of discharges of pollutants from the Facility; certification that the vinyl chloride plant was shut down and will not be re-opened; general certification that the defendant is currently in compliance with all provisions of CAA, RCRA, EPCRA, and CWA; and an agreement that emission reductions resulting from the shutdown of the Facility shall not be banked or otherwise used as emission reduction credits to offset new emissions from other facilities in the District.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environmental and Natural Resources Division, PO Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20044–7611, and should refer to United States of America, State of California, and South Coast Air Quality Management District v. Keysor-Century Corporation, DOJ Ref. #90–5–2–1–07856/1.

The Consent Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 300 North Los Angeles Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, and the Region IX Office of the Environmental Protection Agency, 75 Hawthorne Street, San Francisco, CA 94105. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on April 16, 2004, an electronic version of a proposed consent decree was lodged in United States v. Madison County, Florida, et al., No. 4:02 CV 215 SPM/WW (N.D. Fla.).

In the civil action, the United States alleges claims on behalf of the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") against Madison County, Florida (the "County") and the City of Madison, Florida (the "City") under section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9607, for response costs in connection with the Madison County Sanitary Landfill Superfund Site, in Madison County, Florida (the "Site").

The proposed consent decree requires the County and the City to reimburse all of EPA's outstanding past costs of $797.19 and to pay future oversight costs in connection with oversight of a remedial action being performed by the County and the City under a unilateral administrative order issued by EPA.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree.
