

similar non-Ready to Learn-funded digital properties or to other more traditional educational materials.

Note: Although this GPR measure tracks the results of all of the experimental or quasi-experimental design studies produced under Ready to Learn, applicants should take note that, under the selection criteria, applications are evaluated on the extent to which they propose methods of evaluation that will, if well implemented, produce evidence about the project's effectiveness that meets What Works Clearinghouse standards with or without reservations as defined in the What Works Clearinghouse Handbook (as defined in this notice).

- The number of children who annually use Ready to Learn produced educational media products, disaggregated by individual product, as determined by appropriate industry standard metrics or, when available, by tracking tools.
- The percentage of educational "transmedia products," along with necessary supporting materials, that are deemed to be of high quality in promoting learning by an independent panel of expert reviewers.

Note: The Department will convene expert panels in years three and five to review grantee-produced products. Applicants should include in their budget funds for two individuals in these years to spend two days in Washington, DC to attend these panel meetings and to demonstrate the identified products to reviewers.

- Dollars leveraged from non-Federal sources per Federal dollar dedicated to core non-outreach and non-research program activities.

5. Continuation Awards: In making a continuation award under 34 CFR 75.253, the Secretary considers, among other things: whether a grantee has made substantial progress in achieving the goals and objectives of the project; whether the grantee has expended funds in a manner that is consistent with its approved application and budget; and, if the Secretary has established performance measurement requirements, the performance targets in the grantee's approved application.

In making a continuation award, the Secretary also considers whether the grantee is operating in compliance with the assurances in its approved application, including those applicable to Federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance from the Department (34 CFR 100.4, 104.5, 106.4, 108.8, and 110.23).

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Fusion Energy Sciences Advisory Committee

AGENCY: Office of Science, Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice of Open Meeting: correction.

SUMMARY: This notice announces a meeting of the Fusion Energy Sciences Advisory Committee. The Federal Advisory Committee Act requires that public notice of these meetings be announced in the Federal Register. This document makes a correction to that notice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. Samuel J. Barish, Acting Designated Federal Officer, Office of Fusion Energy Sciences (FES); U.S. Department of Energy; Office of Science; 1000 Independence Avenue SW; Washington, DC 20585; Telephone: (301) 903-2917.

Corrections

In the Federal Register of February 24, 2020, in FR Doc. 2020-03614, on page 10426, please make the following correction:

In that notice under DATES, second column, second paragraph, the meeting dates have changed. The original dates were March 16, 2020; 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and March 17, 2020; 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The new date is March 16, 2020; 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

In that notice under ADDRESSES, second column, fourth paragraph, the meeting address has been changed. The original address was Hilton Washington DC/Rockville Hotel, 1750 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Maryland 20852. Note: Remote attendance only of the FESAC meeting will be available via Zoom. Instructions will be posted on the FESAC website: <https://science.osti.gov/fes/fesac/Meetings> and can also be obtained by contacting Dr. Barish by email: sam.barish@science.doe.gov or by phone (301) 903-2917.

Reason for Correction: The change in venue is due to travel concerns associated with the coronavirus outbreak which caused the change from an in-person FESAC Meeting to be held only remotely via Zoom.

Signed in Washington, DC on March 11, 2020.

LaTanya Butler,

Deputy Committee Management Officer.
