SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Codex Alimentarius (Codex) was established in 1963 by two United Nations organizations, the Food and Agriculture Organization and the World Health Organization. Through adoption of food standards, codes of practice, and other guidelines developed by its committees, and by promoting their adoption and implementation by governments, Codex seeks to protect the health of consumers and ensure that fair practices are used in trade.

The Codex Committee on Food Additives was formed in 2006 from the division of the Codex Committee on Food Additives and Contaminants. It was established to set or endorse maximum levels for individual food additives; prepare priority lists of food additives for risk assessment by the Joint FAO/WHO Expert Committee on Food Additives (JECFA); assign functional classes to individual food additives; recommend specifications of identity and purity for food additives for adoption by the Commission; consider methods of analysis for the determination of additives in food; and consider and elaborate standards or codes for related subjects such as the labeling of food additives when sold as such. The Committee is hosted by the People's Republic of China.

Issues To Be Discussed at the Public Meeting

The following items on the Agenda for the 39th Session of CCFA will be discussed during the public meeting:

- Matters Referred to the Committee from other Codex bodies.
- Matters of Interest arising from FAO/WHO.
- Endorsement/revision of Maximum Levels for Food Additives and Processing Aids in Codex Standards.
- Inclusion of Food Additive Provisions of Commodity Standards into the Codex General Standard for Food Additives (GSFA).
- Consideration of the Codex General Standard for Food Additives.
- Proposed Draft Guidelines for the Use of Flavours.
- Processing Aids.
- International Numbering System (INS) for Food Additives.
- Specifications for the Identity and Purity of Food Additives.
- Priority List of Food Additives Proposed for Evaluation by JECFA.

Each issue listed will be fully described in documents distributed, or to be distributed, by the Secretariat prior to the Meeting. Members of the public may access or request copies of these documents (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE 39TH SESSION OF THE CCFA CONTACT).

Public Meeting

At the March 8, 2007 public meeting, draft U.S. positions on the agenda items will be described and discussed, and attendees will have the opportunity to pose questions and offer comments. Written comments may be offered at the meeting or sent to the U.S. Delegate for CCFA, Dr. Dennis Keefe (see ADDRESSES). Written comments should state that they relate to activities of the 39th Session of CCFA.
