Intellectual Property Rights

All videos submitted to the Stop Bullying Video Challenge remain the intellectual property of the individuals who developed them. However, the Federal Government maintains a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, publish, distribute and exhibit the submission/winning video in any and all formats or manner for educational, training and other information purpose consistent with the Federal Partners for Bullying Prevention's mission. Submissions will be made available free of charge to the public. The Federal Government also reserves the right to make all submitted videos available for partners and local access stations to feature winners or local contestants.

Publicity

Except where prohibited, participation in the Contest constitutes the winner's consent to use of the winner's name, likeness, photograph, voice, opinions, and/or hometown and state information by the Contest's sponsors and/or agents for promotional purposes in any media, worldwide, without further payment or consideration.

Copyright

The contestant warrants that the identified individual(s) involved are the sole author(s) and owner(s) of the Contest submission, that the Contest submission completely originates with the identified participants, that it does not infringe upon any copyright or any other rights of any third party of which the contestant(s) is aware, and that it is free of malware. The contestant cannot submit material that participating individuals between the ages of 13 and 18 did not create and do not own. The contestant cannot take material from any other source.

Liability

The contestant/submitter agrees to assume any and all risks and waive claims against the Federal Government and its related entities, except in the case of willful misconduct, for any injury, death, damage, or loss of property (including any damage that may result from a virus, malware, etc., to Government systems utilized to play the video), revenue, or profits, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, arising from their participation in the competition, whether the injury, death, damage, or loss arises through negligence or otherwise. The contestant/submitter shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Government against, all actions or claims for any claim, demand, judgment, or other allegation arising from alleged violation of an individual's trademark, copyright, or other legally protected interest in videos submitted to the Federal Government.

Privacy Policy

Personal information collected for this contest will only be used to contact video submitters about the contest. The contest winners' names (and the names of any honorable mentions selected) will be announced publicly, after consultation with the winner and any honorable mentions, as a part of the Stop Bullying Video Challenge award recognition process. All information collected is subject to the ChallengePost privacy policy located at www.challengepost.com/privacy.

General Conditions

HRSA reserves the right to cancel, suspend, and/or modify the Contest, or any part of it, for any reason, at HRSA's sole discretion. Participation in this Contest constitutes a contestant's full and unconditional agreement to abide by the Contest's Official Rules found at <http://stopbullying.challenge.gov>.
