

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR*Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration*Working Group on Increasing Pension Coverage, Participation and Benefits Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefits Plans; Notice of Meeting

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 512 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. 1142, the Working Group assigned by the Advisory Council on Employee Welfare and Pension Benefit Plans to study the issue of increasing pension coverage, participation and benefits will hold an open public meeting on Monday, April 9, 2001, in Room N-5437 A-D, U.S. Department of Labor Building, Second and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

The purpose of the open meeting, which will run from 9:30 a.m. to approximately noon, is for Working Group members to hold an organizational meeting and begin taking testimony on their topic, which, it is hoped, will include testimony on current methods employed to improve retirement security. The working group will study ways to increase participation levels and, ultimately, coverage, as well as other related topics that might optimize retirement security.

James S. Ray, the Law Office of James S. Ray of Alexandria, VA., will chair the working group and vice chair will be Judith Mazo, senior vice president/director of research of the Segal Company, Washington, DC.

Members of the public are encouraged to file a written statement pertaining to the topic by submitting 20 copies on or before April 1, 2001, to Sharon Morrissey, Executive Secretary, ERISA Advisory Council, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-5677, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210. Individuals or representatives of organizations wishing to address the Working Group should forward their request to the Executive Secretary or telephone (202) 219-8753. Oral presentations will be limited to 10 minutes, but an extended statement may be submitted for the record. Individuals with disabilities, who need special accommodations, should contact Sharon Morrissey by April 1, at the address indicated in this notice.

Organizations or individuals may also submit statements for the record without testifying. Twenty (20) copies of such statements should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the Advisory Council at the above address. Papers will be accepted and included in the record of the meeting if received on or before April 1.

Signed at Washington, DC this 13th day of March 2001.

Alan D. Lebowitz,

Acting Assistant Secretary, Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: President Bush in presenting his plan Transforming the Federal Role In Education So That No Child is Left Behind said, "The federal role in education is not to serve the system. It is to serve the children." The Commission recognizes the strong relationship between school library media programs and student achievement and the importance of information literacy to student empowerment, freedom of choice, quality of life, business and citizenship in a democracy. In carrying out its statutory mission to provide policy advice to the President and the Congress, the Commission will hold a hearing to examine school librarians as partners in education and invites school library media specialists, librarians, teachers, parents, students, citizens, legislators and expert representatives from educational associations, institutions and organizations to present testimony regarding current issues affecting school library media centers, including staffing, materials, equipment, services, and funding.

The Commission will hear from witnesses on the following topics: Panel One: The Role of the School Librarian in Student Performance; Panel Two: The Role of the School Librarian in the Curriculum; Panel Three: The Role of the School Librarian in Promoting and Sustaining Literacy; Panel Four: The Role of the School Librarian in Promoting and Sustaining Information Literacy; Panel Five: The Role of the Federal Government in Supporting School Libraries. The public hearing will be conducted on the record, with a stenographer present.

Members of the Commission will meet on April 25 to consider the National Award for Libraries. Because of the nature of this discussion, the meeting is closed.

In the NCLIS Business Meeting on April 27, the Commission will discuss NCLIS matters, including the prior day's hearing on "School Librarians: Knowledge Navigators Through Troubled Times," the Comprehensive Assessment of Public Information Dissemination, the Library Statistics Program, and Sister Libraries: A White House Millennium Council Project.

Comments and requests to participate in the hearing should be directed to Rosalie Vlach, Director, Legislative and Public Affairs, U.S. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, 1110 Vermont Avenue, NW., Suite 820, Washington, DC 20005 e-mail rvlach@nclis.gov, fax 202-606-9203 or telephone 202-606-9200. Each notification must include the name and organization affiliation, if any.

The hearing and meeting are open to the public, subject to space availability. Written comments for the hearing will be accepted and must be received no later than close of business on Tuesday,
