

rehearing but, on June 4, 2004, sought reconsideration of the letter, asking the Commission to vacate the letter on the ground that certification was not required. By order issued November 23, 2004, 109 FERC ¶ 61,210 (2004), the Commission denied reconsideration as to the need for certification but granted Augusta's request for an extension of time to obtain it.

On December 23, 2004, Augusta sought rehearing of the Commission's order. The order on reconsideration, which allowed the staff letter to remain effective, did not create a right to rehearing that had not been created by issuance of the staff letter itself. To the extent that Augusta was aggrieved by the staff letter, a request for rehearing of the letter would have been the appropriate remedy. As Augusta did not seek rehearing of the staff letter, a request for rehearing of the order on reconsideration is effectively an impermissibly late-filed request for rehearing of the letter. Accordingly, Augusta's December 23, 2004, request for rehearing in this proceeding does not lie and is dismissed.
