Background: Annex 300-B, Chapter 4, and Annex 401 of the NAFTA contain the rules of origin for textiles and apparel for application of the tariff provisions of the NAFTA. These rules are set forth for the United States in general note 12 to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS). According to the USTR's request letters, U.S. negotiators have recently reached agreements in principle with representatives of the governments of Canada and of Mexico, in the case of articles covered by investigation No. NAFTA-103-7, and the government of Canada, in the case of articles covered by investigation No.
NAFTA-103-8, on proposed modifications to the rules of origin of the NAFTA. If implemented, the proposed rules of origin would apply to U.S. imports from and exports to the NAFTA parties. Section 202(q) of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (the Act) authorizes the President, subject to the consultation and layover requirements of section 103 of the Act, to proclaim such modifications to the rules of origin as are necessary to implement an agreement with one or more of the NAFTA countries pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 7 of Annex 300-B of the Agreement. One of the requirements set out in section 103 of the Act is that the President obtain advice from the United States International Trade Commission.

In his letters, the USTR requested that the Commission provide advice on the probable effect of the proposed modification of the NAFTA rules of origin for the five affected textile articles on U.S. trade under the NAFTA, on total U.S. trade, and on domestic producers of the affected articles. As requested, the Commission will submit its advice to the USTR by October 19, 2004, and soon thereafter, issue a public version of the report with any confidential business information deleted.
