Since the Department’s decisions in these administrative reviews reflect INI’s status as the successor-in-interest to Inchon, there is no need for the Department to make a determination on this issue in the context of a CVD changed circumstances review. The Department noted this fact in the changed circumstances review of the CVD order on S4 from Korea that was initiated on June 30, 2006, to examine whether Hyundai Steel Company was the successor-in-interest to INI. See Stainless Steel Sheet and Strip in Coils From the Republic of Korea: Initiation of Countervailing Duty Changed Circumstances Review, 71 FR 37541 (June 30, 2006) (“In September 2001 and June 2002, respectively, the Department initiated and issued the preliminary results of a changed circumstances review to determine whether INI was entitled to Inchon’s cash deposit rate.”⁵ In the Second Review the Department determined to assign Inchon’s cash deposit rate to INI, thereby eliminating the need to complete the changed circumstances review.”⁶). Therefore, we are rescinding the instant CVD changed circumstances review.
