

the economic prong of domestic industry with respect to the '404 patent as the violation issues that needed to be resolved. The parties agreed there was no need to reopen the evidentiary record, as it has already been fully developed.

On October 4, 2023, the Commission issued a second notice directing the parties to brief: (i) which, if any, of the accused products infringe claim 11 of the '404 patent under the Court's new construction of "movable barrier operator" and (ii) whether the ID properly finds that claim 11 is not patent-ineligible under 35 U.S.C. 101. Comm'n Notice at 3 (Oct. 4, 2023). The Commission determined not to reopen the evidentiary record. The Commission also remanded the investigation to the ALJ for the sole purpose of determining whether Chamberlain satisfied the DI economic prong for the '404 patent. See Remand Order (Oct. 4, 2023) ("Second Remand Order").

On January 11, 2024, the presiding ALJ issued Order No. 46 directing the parties to provide supplemental information regarding the covered products allegedly protected by the '404 patent, the extent to which domestic investments relating to products covered by the '223 patent were applicable to products covered by the '404 patent, the domestic inventories of products covered by the '404 patent, and other issues relating to the DI economic prong analysis. See Order No. 46 (Jan. 11, 2024).

On May 8, 2024, the ALJ issued the Recommended [sic, Remand] Initial Determination on Second Remand Order ("Second RID") presently at issue. Order No. 50 (May 8, 2024). The Second RID finds that Chamberlain has satisfied the DI economic prong for the '404 patent under subsections 337(a)(3)(A), (B), and (C). The Second RID also makes subsidiary findings regarding infringement and the accused Nortek products. The Second RID also notes that the Commission previously found that Chamberlain's domestic industry products (the "'404 DI Products") practice the '404 patent and Chamberlain thus satisfied the DI technical prong.

On May 20, 2024, Nortek filed a petition for review of the Second RID. On May 28, 2024, Chamberlain filed its opposition to Nortek's petition for review.

On June 28, 2024, the Commission determined to review the Second RID. 89 FR 54038 (June 28, 2024). The Commission also requested briefing on remedy, bond, and the public interest. Id.

Upon review of the final ID, the Second RID, the Federal Circuit's decision on appeal, the parties' submissions, and the evidence of record, the Commission finds that Nortek has violated section 337 by importing into the United States, selling for importation, or selling in the United States after importation certain movable barrier operators and components thereof that infringe claim 11 of the '404 patent. As set forth in the accompanying Opinion, the Commission finds that Nortek has infringed claim 11 of the '404 patent, and that claim 11 is not abstract or patent-ineligible under 35 U.S.C. 101. The Commission also finds that Chamberlain has satisfied the DI economic prong per 19 U.S.C. 1337(a)(3)(A), (B), but takes no position on whether it has also satisfied the DI economic prong under section 337(a)(3)(C).

The Commission has determined that the appropriate remedy is: (i) an LEO prohibiting the importation of certain movable barrier operator systems, including garage door operators, and components thereof that infringe claim 11 of the '404 patent; and (ii) a CDO against each Nortek respondents. The Commission has determined that the public interest factors do not preclude issuance of a remedy. The Commission has determined to set a bond in the amount of zero percent (0%) of the entered value of the infringing products imported during the period of Presidential review (19 U.S.C. 1337(j)).

The Commission issues its opinion herewith setting forth its determinations on certain issues. This investigation is hereby terminated.

The Commission's orders and opinion were delivered to the President and United States Trade Representative on the day of their issuance.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on November 21, 2024.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: November 21, 2024.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
