

types of services may be permitted, but only if a foreign firm enters into a joint venture with a Chinese entity. It appears that these enterprises must be structured in such a way that the Chinese partner controls the majority of the joint venture and that Chinese nationals must control the highest levels of management. The Commission is also interested in hearing about any other impacts of the Implementing Rules on companies serving the U.S.-China trade.

The Commission is particularly seeking to establish a clear record of the likely or anticipated impact of these rules on the services U.S. NVOCCs are now permitted to perform in China, what activities are prohibited, what requirements or prerequisites are imposed and what, if any, detrimental effects these requirements and prohibitions have on U.S. companies doing business or seeking to do business in China. It would also be helpful to learn whether compliance with the Implementing Rules by ocean common carriers, agents or other entities has affected or is likely to affect the ability of U.S. NVOCCs to do business and serve customers in China and the U.S.

In light of the publication of the Notice and Implementing Rules by the Government of the People's Republic of China, the Commission encourages companies affected by the Regulations and the Implementing Rules to submit comments to MOC. The Commission would also welcome comments from any carrier, shipper, intermediary or any other party directly or indirectly affected by the Implementing Rules. Providing such comments will assist the Commission in measuring the effects of the Implementing Rules. Specifically, the Commission is seeking information with regard to how companies serving the U.S.-China trade will be affected by the Implementing Rules. Any supporting documentation would be especially welcome. Upon request, the Commission may hold information submitted in response to this Further Notice of Inquiry confidential, pursuant to 46 U.S.C. 876(h) and 46 U.S.C. 1710a(d)(3). The Commission cannot, however, ensure the confidentiality of documents submitted via e-mail due to the nature of such transmissions.

Persons who have commented on the Commission's prior NOI may wish to take this opportunity to supplement their comments, if necessary, in light of these new implementing rules.

Now therefore, it is ordered, that this Further Notice of Inquiry be published in the Federal Register.

By the Commission.
Bryant L. VanBrakle,
Secretary.
