A.O. Smith Electrical Products
Company, Scottsville, KY; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on March 17, 2008 in response to a worker petition filed by a company official on behalf of workers at A.O. Smith Electrical Products Company, Scottsville, Kentucky.

The petitioning group of workers is covered by an earlier petition (TA-W-62,988) filed on March 11, 2008 that is the subject of an ongoing investigation for which a determination has not yet been issued. Further investigation in this case would duplicate efforts and serve no purpose; therefore the investigation under this petition has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of March 2008.

Richard Church,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Funding Opportunity DescriptionOverview of the Susan Harwood
Training Grant Program*

The Susan Harwood Training Grant Program provides funds for programs to train employees and employers to recognize, avoid, and prevent safety and health hazards in their workplaces. The program emphasizes four areas:

- Educating employees and employers in small businesses. For purposes of this grant program, a small business is one with 250 or fewer employees.
- Training employees and employers about new OSHA standards.
- Training at-risk employee and employer populations.
- Training employees and employers about high risk activities or hazards identified by OSHA through the Department of Labor's Strategic Plan, or as part of an OSHA special emphasis program.

Grant Category Being Announced

Under this solicitation for grant applications, OSHA will accept applications for the Targeted Topic training grant category.

*Topics for the Targeted Topic Training
Category*

Organizations funded for Targeted Topic training category grants are expected to develop and provide occupational safety and health training and/or educational programs addressing one of the topics selected by OSHA, recruit employees and employers for the training, and conduct and evaluate the training. Grantees are also expected to conduct follow-up evaluations with individuals trained by their program to determine what, if any, changes were made to reduce hazards in their workplaces as a result of the training. If your organization plans to train
