Colorado Interstate Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

August 20, 2003.

Take notice that on August 15, 2003, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, First Revised Sheet No. 358A, bearing a proposed effective date of October 1, 2002.

CIG states that the tendered tariff sheet adds a recently approved revenue crediting provision to the currently effective Tariff.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with § 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the eLibrary (FERRIS) link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. #### Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

August 20, 2003.

Take notice that on August 14, 2003, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff sheets listed on Appendix A to the filing, bearing a proposed effective date of September 1, 2003, and tariff sheets listed on Appendix B to the filing, bearing a proposed effective date of April 1, 2004.

Columbia states it is making this filing in compliance with the Commission's July 30, 2003, Order in the above-referenced dockets. In the July 30 Order, the Commission held that Columbia's August 19, 2002, filing to comply with the Commission's July 19, 2002, order on Columbia's compliance with Order Nos. 637, 587-G, and 587-L generally complied with the requirements of those Orders. Columbia states however, the Commission required that Columbia make certain compliance changes by filing actual tariff sheets within 15 days of the date of issuance of the July 30 Order. The Commission directed Columbia that those tariff sheets should have a September 1, 2003, effective date. Columbia states that in addition, the Commission identified other compliance changes that were to have an effective date of April 1, 2004. Columbia further states that these revised tariff sheets reflect the changes required by the Commission in the July 30 Order.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with § 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with § 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the eLibrary (FERRIS) link. #### Direct Energy Marketing Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

August 20, 2003.

Direct Energy Marketing Inc. (Direct Energy) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying tariff. The proposed tariff provides for wholesale sales of electric energy at market-based rates. Direct Energy also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Direct Energy requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Direct Energy.

On August 13, 2003, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—South, granted the request for blanket approval under part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Direct Energy should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).
