SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Securities Act of 1933 Release No. 8989/ Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Release No. 59113]

Order Approving Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Budget and Annual Accounting Support Fee for Calendar Year 2009

December 17, 2008.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act") established the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB") to oversee the audits of public companies and related matters, to protect investors, and to further the public interest in the preparation of informative, accurate and independent audit reports. The PCAOB is to accomplish these goals through registration of public accounting firms and standard setting, inspection, and disciplinary programs. Section 109 of the Act provides that the PCAOB shall establish a reasonable annual accounting support fee, as may be necessary or appropriate to establish and maintain the PCAOB. Section 109(h) amends Section 13(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers to pay the allocable share of a reasonable annual accounting support fee or fees, determined in accordance with Section 109 of the Act. Under Section 109(f), the aggregate annual accounting support fee shall not exceed the PCAOB's aggregate "recoverable budget expenses," which may include operating, capital and accrued items. Section 109(b) of the Act directs the PCAOB to establish a budget for each fiscal year in accordance with the PCAOB's internal procedures, subject to approval by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission").

On July 18, 2006, the Commission amended its Rules of Practice related to its Informal and Other Procedures to add a rule to facilitate the Commission's review and approval of PCAOB budgets and accounting support fees.¹ This budget rule provides, among other things, a timetable for the preparation and submission of the PCAOB budget and for Commission actions related to each budget, a description of the information that should be included in each budget submission, limits on the PCAOB's ability to incur expenses and obligations except as provided in the approved budget, procedures relating to supplemental budget requests, requirements for the PCAOB to furnish on a quarterly basis certain budget-related information, and a list of definitions that apply to the rule and to general discussions of PCAOB budget matters.

In accordance with the budget rule, in March 2008 the PCAOB provided the Commission with a narrative description of its program issues and outlook for the 2009 budget year. In response, the Commission staff provided to the PCAOB staff economic assumptions and budgetary guidance for the 2009 budget year. The PCAOB subsequently delivered a preliminary budget and budget justification to the Commission. Staff from the Commission's Offices of the Chief Accountant and Executive Director dedicated a substantial amount of time to the review and analysis of the PCAOB's programs, projects and budget estimates; reviewed the PCAOB's estimates of 2008 actual spending; and attended several meetings with management and staff of the PCAOB to develop an understanding of the PCAOB's budget and operations. During the course of the Commission's review, the Commission staff relied upon representations and supporting documentation from the PCAOB. Based on this comprehensive review, the Commission issued a "pass back" letter to the PCAOB. The PCAOB approved its 2009 budget on November 25, 2008 and submitted that budget for Commission approval.

After considering the above, the Commission did not identify any proposed disbursements in the 2009 budget adopted by the PCAOB that are not properly recoverable through the annual accounting support fee, and the Commission believes that the aggregate proposed 2009 annual accounting support fee does not exceed the PCAOB's aggregate recoverable budget expenses for 2009. The Commission looks forward to the PCAOB's annual updating of its strategic plan and the opportunity for the Commission to review and provide views to the PCAOB on a draft of the updated plan.

As part of its review of the 2009 PCAOB budget, the Commission notes that there are certain budget-related matters that should be addressed or more closely monitored during 2009. These matters relate to the PCAOB's inspections program, its information technology programs, and recommendations of the Department of the Treasury's Advisory Committee on the Auditing Profession that relate to the PCAOB. Because of the importance of each of these matters, the Commission deems it necessary to set forth the following specific measures.

Accordingly, with respect to the PCAOB's 2010 budget cycle, the PCAOB will:

(1) Include in its quarterly reports to the Commission information on the PCAOB's fulfillment of its 2009 budgeted inspection plan. Such information will include updated statistics relative to the numbers and types of firms budgeted and expected to be inspected in 2009, including by location and by year the inspections are required to be conducted in accordance with the Act and PCAOB rules. This information also will include updates on the PCAOB's efforts to establish cooperative arrangements with respective non-U.S. authorities for inspections required in those countries;

(2) Continue to include detailed information about the state of the PCAOB's information technology in its quarterly reports to the Commission, including planned, estimated, and actual costs for information technology projects such as the proposed annual and special reporting system and the proposed inspections information system; and

(3) Consult with the Commission about the PCAOB's plans for implementing the recommendations of the Department of Treasury's Advisory Committee on the Auditing Profession, including estimated and actual costs for each item proposed to be implemented. The consultation will include the PCAOB submitting a project plan and justification to the Commission and the opportunity for the Commission to provide views to the PCAOB regarding such plan.

The Commission has determined that the PCAOB's 2009 budget and annual accounting support fee are consistent with Section 109 of the Act. Accordingly,

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 109 of the Act, that the PCAOB budget and annual accounting support fee for calendar year 2009 are approved.

By the Commission.

Florence E. Harmon,

Acting Secretary.
