In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

- (i) explain how the articles potentially subject to the recommended remedial orders are used in the United States;
- (ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the recommended orders;
- (iii) identify like or directly competitive articles that complainant, its licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;

- (v) explain how the recommended orders would impact consumers in the United States.

Written submissions must be filed no later than by close of business on September 2, 2025.

³ The Commission also finds that imports subject to Commerce’s affirmative critical circumstances determination are likely to undermine seriously the remedial effect of the countervailing and antidumping duty orders on how speed personal transportation vehicles from China (Commissioner David S. Johanson dissenting).
