Ametek Aerospace and Power Instruments, a Division of Ametek Aerospace and Defense, a Division of Ametek, Wilmington, MA; Notice of Revised Determination of Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

By letter dated November 19, 2004, a representative of the International Union of Electronic/Communication Workers of America, Local 201, requested administrative reconsideration regarding Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA). The certification for Trade Adjustment Assistance was signed on October 22, 2004. The notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on November 12, 2004 (69 FR 65463).

The initial investigation determined that subject worker group possess skills that are easily transferable.

The petitioner provided new information to show that the workers possess skills that are not easily transferable.

At least five percent of the workforce at the subject firm is at least fifty years of age. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that the requirements of Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, have been met for workers at the subject firm.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Ametek Aerospace and Power Instruments, A Division of Ametek Aerospace and Defense, A Division of Ametek, Wilmington, Massachusetts, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 24, 2003, through October 22, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 30th day of December, 2004.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

CDI Professional Services, Workers at General Dynamics Land Systems, California Technical Center, Goleta, CA; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application of December 10, 2004, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers of the subject firm. The denial was signed on November 17, 2004, and the notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on December 9, 2004 (69 FR 71428).

The Department carefully reviewed the petitioner's request for reconsideration and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation based on new information provided.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 30th day of December, 2004.
