

4 and 9 of DTC's Rules and Procedures as it would with respect to losses included in DTC's settlement system.

Currently all settling banks are required to acknowledge their net-net debit balances, and settling banks that also settle for others are required to acknowledge their net-net credit balances. As part of its End-of-the-Day Settlement Process and use of NSS, DTC does not send a settling bank's net-net debit balance to a FRB for collection until the settling bank has acknowledged its balance. Some settling banks have requested that the acknowledgement step no longer be required. Therefore, DTC proposes to permit any settling bank that settles only for its own account using NSS to opt to not acknowledge its balance by signing the NSS Settling Bank Acknowledgement Option Form.⁷ This option does not apply to settling banks that settle for others, as the acknowledgement process includes the option to refuse to pay for a participant for whom that settling bank provides settlement services.

DTC believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of Section 17A of the Act⁸ and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to DTC because it will reduce settlement risk. The proposed rule change will be implemented consistently with the safeguarding of securities and funds in DTC's custody or control or for which it is responsible since the new operation of DTC's settlement processes, as modified by the proposed rule change, will enhance the current operation of the function.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

DTC does not believe that the proposed rule change would have any material adverse impact on competition.

(C) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

The proposed rule change has been developed through discussions with several participants. However, DTC has received a letter from one participant expressing concerns regarding the FRB's NSS, and DTC has had subsequent conversations with that participant regarding that letter.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within thirty-five days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to ninety days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change or

(B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Section, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of DTC. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-DTC-2002-06 and should be submitted by July 2, 2002.

For the Commission by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.⁹
