Honey from Argentina: Notice of Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is partially rescinding its administrative review of the antidumping duty order on honey from Argentina for the period December 1, 2005, to November 30, 2006, with respect to four companies. This rescission, in part, is based on the timely withdrawal of the request for review by the interested parties that requested the review. A complete list of the companies for which the administrative review is being rescinded is provided in the background section below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 19, 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

David Cordell or Robert James, AD/CVD Operations, Office 7, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Room 7866, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0408 and (202) 482-0649, respectively.

BACKGROUND:

On December 1, 2006, the Department published in the Federal Register its notice of an opportunity to request a review of the antidumping duty order on honey from Argentina. See Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation; Opportunity to Request Administrative Review, 71 FR 69543 (December 1, 2006). In response, on December 29, 2006, the American Honey Producers Association and the Sioux Honey Association (collectively, petitioners) requested an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on honey from Argentina for the period December 1, 2005, through November 30, 2006. The petitioners requested that the Department conduct an administrative review of entries of subject merchandise made by nine Argentine producers/exporters¹. In addition, the Department received requests for review from six Argentine exporters included in the petitioners' request. Furthermore, the Department received one request from a producer/exporter that was not included in petitioners' requests for review.

On February 2, 2007, the Department initiated a review on the ten companies² for which an administrative review was requested. See Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews and Request for Revocation in Part, 72 FR 5005 (February 2, 2007).

On March 9, 2007, petitioners timely withdrew their requests for review of the following companies: Agroin Las Piedras Ltda., Seabird Argentina S.A. and Ultramar Argentina S.A.. See Letter from petitioners to the Department, Honey From Argentina, (March 9, 2007), on file in the Central Records Unit (CRU), room B-099 of the main Department building. On April 23, 2007, Nexco S.A. (Nexco) withdrew its request for a review. On April 24, 2007, petitioners withdrew their request for a review of Nexco.

Scope of the Order

The merchandise covered by the order is honey from Argentina. The products covered are natural honey, artificial honey containing more than 50 percent natural honey by weight, preparations of ¹ Petitioners requested Mielar S.A. (Mielar) and Compania Apicola Argentina (CAA) as separate entities. However, in a previous segment of this proceeding, the Department treated these two companies as a single entity.

² The Federal Register notice lists 11 companies but as explained above Mielar and CAA are currently being treated as a single entity based on decisions made in a previous segment of this proceeding.
