Certain Aluminum Foil from the People's Republic of China: Notice of Court Decision Not in Harmony With the Amended Final Determination in the Countervailing Duty Investigation, and Notice of Amended Final Determination and Amended Countervailing Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On March 24, 2020, the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) issued its final judgment in Jiangsu Zhongji Lamination Materials Co., Ltd. v. United States, Court No. 18-00089, sustaining the Department of Commerce (Commerce)'s remand redetermination concerning the final determination in the countervailing duty (CVD) investigation of certain aluminum foil (aluminum foil) from the People's Republic of China (China), covering the period of investigation (POI) January 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016. Commerce is notifying the public that the CIT's final judgment is not in harmony with the Amended Final Determination and Order of the investigation and that Commerce is amending the Amended Final Determination and Order with respect to the CVD cash deposit rate assigned to Jiangsu Zhongji Lamination Materials Co., Ltd., Shantou Wanshun Package Material Stock Co., Ltd., Jiangsu Huafeng Aluminum Industry Co., Ltd., and Jiangsu Zhongji Lamination Materials Co., (HK) Ltd. (collectively, Zhongji) and all other companies.

DATES: Applicable April 3, 2020.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 5, 2018, Commerce published the Final Determination, finding, inter alia, that Zhongji used the Export Buyer's Credit Program and failed to meet the criteria for an entered value adjustment.¹ Commerce published an Amended Final Determination and Order resulting from the investigation on April 19, 2018.² Zhongji challenged the Amended Final Determination and Order before the CIT. On September 18, 2019, the CIT remanded Commerce's determination for further analysis, instructing the parties to contemplate a solution to the impasse and to confer for the Export Buyer's Credit Program, and instructing Commerce to identify the information that Commerce uncovered at verification that caused Commerce to find unsupported Zhongji's request for an entered value adjustment (EVA).³ Commerce issued a redetermination on remand, under protest, explaining Commerce's position that Commerce cannot accurately verify use of the Export Buyer's Credit Program without the cooperation of the Government of China, but nevertheless finding that Zhongji did not use the Export Buyer's Credit Program, in light of the CIT's remands on the issue.⁴ Additionally, in its redetermination, Commerce addressed how information discovered at verification supported its finding that Zhongji's request for an EVA is unsupported, however, because Zhongji was not provided notice that Commerce intended to reconsider its EVA methodology for the Final Determination, Commerce determined it appropriate to grant Zhongji's EVA request. On March 24, 2020, the Court sustained the Remand Results.⁵

Timken Notice

In its decision in Timken,⁶ as clarified by Diamond Sawblades,⁷ the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (CAFC) held that, pursuant to section 516A(c) and (e) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), Commerce must publish a notice of a court decision that is not "in harmony" with a Commerce determination and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a "conclusive" court decision. The CIT's March 24, 2020, judgment in this case constitutes a final decision of the court that is not in harmony with Commerce's Amended Final Determination and Order. This notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.

Amended Final Determination and Order

Because there is now a final court decision, Commerce is amending its Amended Final Determination and Order. Commerce finds that the revised countervailable subsidy rate for Zhongji is 6.46 percent. We have also recalculated the all-others rate to 13.28 percent.
