

interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Delgado-Lerma's conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554, and has provided notice and opportunity for Delgado-Lerma to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR" or the "Regulations"). 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Delgado-Lerma.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Delgado-Lerma's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of seven years from the date of Delgado-Lerma's conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Delgado-Lerma had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until May 14, 2026, Hector Mario Delgado-Lerma, with a last known address of Villegas 405 Nte, Linares, NL 67740, Mexico, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives ("the Denied Person"), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (50 U.S.C. 4819(e)) and sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Delgado-Lerma by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with part 756 of the Regulations, Delgado-Lerma may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Delgado-Lerma and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until May 14, 2026.

Order Denying Export Privileges; In the Matter of: Nicky Lee Quiroz, Inmate Number #80355–479, Federal Medical Center Carswell, P.O. Box 27137, Fort Worth, Texas 76127

On September 19, 2019, in the U.S. District Court of the Southern District of Texas, Nicky Lee Quiroz ("Quiroz") was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554. Specifically, Quiroz was convicted of knowingly attempting to send or export from the United States to Mexico, one 10.5 inch, 5.56 mm pistol kit, and one carbine-length 5.56mm rifle kit, firearm components designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List without the required Department of State license. Quiroz was sentenced to 70 months in prison, three years of supervised release and a $100 assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act ("ECRA"),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e) (Prior Convictions). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Quiroz's conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554, and has provided notice and opportunity for Quiroz to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR" or the "Regulations"). 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Quiroz.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of ² The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 CFR parts 730–774 (2021).

³ The Director, Office of Export Enforcement, is now the authorizing official for issuance of denial orders, pursuant to recent amendments to the Regulations (85 FR 73411, November 18, 2020).

² The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 CFR parts 730–774 (2021).

Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Quiroz's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Quiroz's conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Quiroz had an interest at the time of her conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until September 19, 2029, Nicky Lee Quiroz, with a last known address of Federal Medical Center Carswell, P.O. Box 272137, Fort Worth, Texas 76127, and when acting for or on her behalf, her successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives ("the Denied Person"), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export or reexport to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (50 U.S.C. 4819(e)) and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Quiroz by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with part 756 of the Regulations, Quiroz may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Quiroz and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until September 19, 2029.

Order Denying Export Privileges; In the Matter of: Nereyda Carrillo-Montes, 304 South 25th Street, Apt. 2, Hidalgo, TX 78557

On April 24, 2019, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Nereyda Carrillo-Montes ("Carrillo-Montes"), was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554(a). Specifically, Carrillo-Montes was convicted of fraudulently and knowingly exporting and sending or attempting to export and send from the United States to Mexico, approximately 168 rifle magazines in 7.62 x 39mm caliber and approximately 3,000 rounds of 7.62 x 39mm caliber ammunition, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 554.

Carrillo-Montes was sentenced to time served, three years of supervised release including home confinement for six months, and a $100 assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act ("ECRA"),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e) (Prior Convictions). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS") licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Carrillo-Montes's conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554, and has provided notice and opportunity for Carrillo-Montes to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR" or the "Regulations"). 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Carrillo-Montes.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Carrillo-Montes's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of five years from the date of Carrillo-Montes's conviction.
