SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Davis-Bacon Act (DBA), requires the payment of minimum prevailing wages determined by the Department of Labor to laborers and mechanics working on federal contracts in excess of $2,000 for the construction, alteration, or repair, including painting and decorating, of public buildings and public works. The DBA delegates to the Secretary of Labor the responsibility to determine the wage rates that are "prevailing" for each classification of covered laborers and mechanics on similar projects "in the civil subdivision of the State in which the work is to be performed." 40 U.S.C. 3142(b). The Department is responsible for issuing these wage determinations (WDs). The implementing regulations provide that the Administrator of WHD will conduct a continuing program for obtaining and compiling wage rate information for issuing WDs. As a part of this program, the regulation provides that the Administrator will encourage the voluntary submission of wage rate data by contractors, contractors' associations, labor organizations, public officials, and other interested parties, reflecting wage rates paid to laborers and mechanics on various types of construction in the area. See 29 CFR 1.3(a). Form WD-10 is used by the Department to solicit construction project data from contractor associations, contractors, and unions. The wage data is used to determine locally prevailing wages under the Davis-Bacon and Related Acts. A new pre-survey, WD-10A, requests that general contractors and subcontractors supply a list of their subcontractors to whom WHD may send notification of the survey. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on June 15, 2022 (87 FR 36152).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal.
