Title: NESHP for Marine Tank Vessel Loading Operations (Renewal).

Abstract: This information collection request addresses Clean Air Act information collection requirements in standards published at 40 CFR part 63, subpart Y, which have mandatory recordkeeping and reporting requirements. The information collected under these requirements concern compliance with emissions standards relating to loading of marine tank vessels with petroleum and gasoline. Records collected under the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHP) must be retained by the owner or operator for at least five years, so that the records can be shown to inspectors when requested. In general, the required collections consist of emissions data and other information deemed not to be private (40 CFR 63.15).

Delegated states and EPA Regional Offices use the information collected under these requirements to determine compliance with the NESHP. In the absence of such information collection requirements, enforcement personnel would be unable to determine whether the standards are being met on a continuous basis, as required by the Clean Air Act.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. The OMB Control Numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and 48 CFR chapter 15, and are identified on the form and/or instrument, if applicable.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 12 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are marine tank vessel loading operations at marine terminals.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 804.

Frequency of Response: On occasion, Semi-annually, Annually.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 9,872 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Costs: $629,850 which includes $0 annualized capital/startup costs, $0 annual O&M costs, and $629,850 in Respondent Labor costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is a decrease of 18,259 hours in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. This decrease is due to a change in the estimated number of facilities that submit reports from 105 to 38 and correction of the frequency of HAP control efficiency reports from quarterly to annually.

Balancing these decreases are three sources of increase in burden. Recordkeeping burden for facilities that keep records but do not report, not considered in previous versions of the ICR, is included here at one hour for each of 766 facilities. Industry labor rates increased by an average of 16.7% from those in the active ICR. Calculated burden also increased by including managerial and clerical labor, which had not been included in the previous ICR.

Dated: March 25, 2005.

Director, Collection Strategies Division.

Title: RCRA Expanded Public Participation.

Abstract: Section 7004(b) of RCRA gives EPA broad authority to provide for, encourage, and assist public participation in the development, revision, implementation, and enforcement of any regulation, guideline, information, or program under RCRA. In addition, the statute specifies certain public notices (i.e., radio, newspaper, and a letter to relevant agencies) that EPA must provide before issuing any RCRA permit. The statute also establishes a process by which the public can dispute a permit and request a public hearing to discuss it. EPA carries out much of its RCRA public involvement at 40 CFR parts 124 and 270.

In 1995, EPA expanded the public participation requirements under the RCRA program by promulgating the RCRA Expanded Public Participation Rule (60 FR 63417; December 11, 1995). The rule responded to calls by the
