Federal Open Market Committee; Domestic Policy Directive of September 21, 2004

In accordance with § 271.25 of its rules regarding availability of information (12 CFR part 271), there is set forth below the domestic policy directive issued by the Federal Open Market Committee at its meeting held on September 21, 2004.¹

The Federal Open Market Committee seeks monetary and financial conditions that will foster price stability and promote sustainable growth in output. To further its long-run objectives, the Committee in the immediate future seeks conditions in reserve markets consistent with increasing the federal funds rate to an average of around 1–3/4 percent.

By order of the Federal Open Market Committee, November 18, 2004.

Vincent R. Reinhart,

Secretary, Federal Open Market Committee.
