

34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Leaning Juniper should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 5, 2005.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Leaning Juniper is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Leaning Juniper, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Leaning Juniper's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Magalie R. Salas,
Secretary.

Southern Natural Gas Company; Notice of Request for Waiver

November 15, 2005.

Take notice that on November 10, 2005, Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) tendered for filing request for waiver with the Commission for authorization to waive the requirements of section 6.3 of the general terms and conditions of its tariff to allow shippers with firm rights at receipt points that are out of service as a result of the damage caused by Hurricanes Rita and Katrina to request a temporary shift to a receipt point on a firm basis where capacity is available up to their maximum daily receipt quantity. Southern states that such receipt point shifts will be for a temporary period of the earlier of: (i) The first of the month after the date the existing firm receipt point is operational and Southern is able to gas accept nominations; or (ii) through June 30, 2006. Southern further states that the rights to the existing firm receipt points will automatically revert back at the end of the temporary period.

Southern states that it will hold an open season specifically for such temporary receipt point shifts and will award the receipt point shifts according to section 2.1(b) of the general terms and conditions of its tariff.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will
