Section II of this notice describes the authority redelegated to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget. On March 17, 2004, the Assistant Secretary for Housing issued a redelegation of authority (that was not published) authorizing each Office of Housing Deputy Assistant Secretary (DAS) to perform all of the functions of a source selection official. The authority redelegated can only be exercised: (1) In relation to a procurement for which the DAS has subject matter jurisdiction and (2) consistent with HUD procurement policies and procedures, the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), and the HUD Acquisition Regulation (HUDAR). Accordingly, a new function item, designated as L, has been added to the authority redelegated to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget under Section II below. Otherwise, no change has been made to the authority redelegated to Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget on August 11, 2003, and that authority remains in effect.

Section I. Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget: Organization

Four offices report to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget. These are the (1) Office of Evaluation; (2) Office of Budget and Field Resources; (3) Office of Asset Sales; and (4) Office of the Housing-FHA Comptroller. The following is a brief summary of each of these offices.

A. Office of Evaluation

The Office of Evaluation assesses the financial impact of new or revised HUD/FHA programs and policies, new or proposed legislation, and/or new or proposed rules and regulations of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), the Government Accountability Office (GAO), or the Department of Treasury (Treasury). Based on these assessments, the Office of Evaluation develops recommendations, alternatives, and various scenarios used by managers to determine appropriate actions. The Office of Evaluation is responsible for actuarial analyses and cash flow projections of the FHA insurance funds and evaluates relationships between current market conditions and FHA program goals and objectives. The Office of Evaluation uses both internal and external resources to estimate the financial impact of policy changes or external factors (such as regional recessions or natural disasters) on FHA programs. The following additional functions are conducted by the Office of Evaluation: monitoring daily cash flows to make sound investments; conducting quarterly analyses of economic developments; and conducting on-going actuarial analyses of FHA's insurance funds.

B. The Office of Budget and Field Resources

The Office of Budget and Field Resources is responsible for the formulation, presentation, and execution of the Office of Housing's program and administrative budgets. This includes fund assignments and control, financial resource management, coordination of financial resources in support of field operations, and budget analysis and reporting. The Office of Budget and Field Resources is responsible for analyzing and evaluating the financial and budgetary impact of new or revised Office of Housing programs and policies, proposed legislation, and new or revised OMB, GAO, or Treasury guidance. The responsibilities and duties of personnel within the Office of Budget and Field Resources pertain to internal HUD matters, do not require rendering decisions that bind HUD in relation to external clients and customers and, therefore, do not require delegations of authority.

C. Office of Asset Sales

The Office of Asset Sales oversees the disposition of mortgage notes acquired by Housing upon a default by the mortgagor and assignment of the note to FHA in return for the payment of a claim. The Office of Asset Sales is responsible for the sale of single family, multifamily, and hospital notes in the manner most advantageous to the federal government. The Office of Asset Sales develops alternative disposition methods that will reduce the acquisition and holding costs of these assets while increasing recovery upon sale.

D. Office of the Housing-FHA Comptroller

The Office of the Housing-FHA Comptroller is a Headquarters operation. The Office of the Housing-FHA Comptroller contains one field component, the Financial Operations Center, located in Albany, New York, that reports to one of the three major Washington, DC, offices within the Office of the Housing-FHA Comptroller. (c) The Multifamily Financial Operations Division. This Division is responsible for performing the accounting and financial management services necessary for the servicing of all multifamily, insured mortgages in the FHA portfolio and the support of the approved lenders that hold FHA-insured mortgages. The Office of Financial Analysis and Reporting is responsible for classifying, summarizing, analyzing, and reporting the financial, accounting, and budgetary activities and transactions for FHA/Housing activities as required for a wholly-owned government corporation, subject to the provisions of the Government Corporation Control Act. The Office of Financial Analysis and Reporting also evaluates the impact of new or proposed OMB, GAO, or Treasury rules and regulations, develops financial performance measures, and oversees cash management and investment. Primary functions include developing and implementing accounting policies and procedures based on Federal Basis Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (FGAAP) requirements and directives and regulations from OMB, Treasury, Congress, and the Administration; reconciling actual cash, accounting, and budgetary events to independent source documents to assure the Department that the general ledger accounts are in order and the budgetary statements accurately represent account balances; participating with auditors, both internal and external, in the planning and conduct of accounting and financial management audits, investigations, and reviews; monitoring daily cash flows; making sound investments; and preparing the FHA Annual Report. A
