

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. CP05-400-001]*Dominion Transmission, Inc.; Notice Of Compliance Filing

October 26, 2005.

Take notice that on October 20, 2005, Dominion Transmission, Inc. (DTI) submitted a compliance filing pursuant to the Commission's "Order Approving Abandonment" issued October 5, 2005 in Docket No. CP05-400-000, which authorized the abandonment of Rate Schedule X-5.

DTI states that copies of the filing were served on parties on the official service list in the above-captioned proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Protests to this filing will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Such protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing a protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket Nos. ER05-1469-000 and No. ER05-1470-000]*DTE East China, LLC; DTE Energy Trading, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

October 27, 2005.

DTE East China, LLC (DTE East China) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate tariff. The proposed rate tariff provides for the sales of capacity and energy at market-based rates. DTE East China also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, DTE East China requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by DTE East China.

On October 25, 2005, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—South, granted the request for blanket approval under part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by DTE East Energy should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is Hereby Given That the Deadline for Filing Motions To Intervene or Protests Is November 25, 2005

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, DTE East China is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of DTE East China, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of DTE East China's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Magalie R. Salas,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket Nos. RP06-51-000 and RP97-391-004]*Interstate Natural Gas Association of America; Notice of Petition To Waive Disbursement of Gas Research Institute Refund Obligation

October 27, 2005.

Take notice that on October 11, 2005, Interstate Natural Gas Association of America (INGAA), on behalf of its interstate natural gas pipeline company membership, filed a petition requesting that the Commission waive an obligation imposed on pipelines by a 1998 settlement obligation in Docket No. RP97-391 to pass through to customers certain Gas Research Institute (GRI) refunds and, in lieu of that obligation, authorize the pipelines to make payments to certain charitable organizations to assist victims of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

INGAA states that the refund amounts are so small that it would be impractical to disburse them to individual customers, and that disbursing the refund to certain charities to aid victims of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita is preferable.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will
