

DFAST 10–50 reporting requirements for loans and leases and that eliminating these items from the reporting template would not affect an institution's ability to project pre-provision net revenue, net income, or regulatory capital in order to assess their capital needs under stressed conditions. Therefore, the OCC eliminated these three supplemental balance sheet memoranda reporting items.

Commenters also requested that common stock, retained earnings, surplus, and other equity components be reported as a single line item. The OCC agrees with this comment and has combined the aforementioned capital components into one line item to be reported as "equity capital."

One commenter noted that separately modeling average rates for each type of deposit would also involve a significant amount of work and potentially affect other company-run models. The OCC agrees that the average rate information is not a necessary data input needed for an institution to project losses, pre-provision net revenue, or capital. Further, the additional burden placed on institutions to calculate the projected average rates could unnecessarily distract institutions from the primary goal of the annual company-run stress test—to effectively estimate the possible impact of an economic downturn on a firm's capital position in order to plan for capital needs and identify and manage risk. Therefore, the OCC has removed all average rate memoranda items on the balance sheet. This change is consistent with the OCC's goal of making the DFAST 10–50 report similar to the Call Report and of reducing new burden on covered institutions.

Two commenters favored the elimination of the income statement item for Gains and Losses on Other Real Estate Owned (OREO). One commenter noted that this element could effectively be combined with forecasting of other OREO expenses. The other commenter stated that the level of detail for this element is more granular than what is required for the DFAST 14A template. The OCC notes that gains or losses on OREO are captured in the pre-provision net revenue metrics worksheet of the DFAST 14A template; therefore, this requirement would not be more burdensome for the $10–$50 billion firms. Nevertheless, the OCC has eliminated this item since gains and losses on OREO would already be captured within the non-interest income statement memoranda item "itemize and describe amounts greater than 15% of non-interest income" or in the "itemize and describe amounts greater than 15% of non-interest expense" when the amount meets the 15% threshold required by the proposed OCC DFAST 10–50 results template.

In response to a few technical comments received, the OCC has adjusted the templates and instructions accordingly. These changes include correction of formulaic errors; correction of Micro Data Reference Manual (MDRM) errors; clarified reporting instructions for income statement memoranda items; and more detailed technical reporting instructions, including the elimination of the contact information schedule as this information would be collected through the results template cover sheet and related data collection application.

Burden Estimates: OCC estimates the burden of this collection of information as follows:

Estimated Number of Respondents: 33.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 15,312 hours.

The burden for each $10 to $50 billion covered institution that completes the DFAST 10–50 results template is estimated to be 440 hours for a total of 14,520 hours. This burden includes 20 hours to input these data and 420 hours for work related to modeling efforts. The estimated burden for each $10 to $50 billion covered institution that completes the annual DFAST scenarios variables template is estimated to be 24 hours for a total of 792 hours. Start up costs for new respondents are estimated to be 93,600 hours and ongoing revisions for existing firms, 4,160 hours.

Comments continue to be invited on:

(a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the OCC, including whether the information has practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of the OCC's estimate of the burden of the collection of information;

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

(d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and,

(e) Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.
