

(Independence). The exact locations and times of the meetings (or scheduling of any additional meetings) will be announced via regional and local news media.

Future Information: Information about development and status of the Furnace Creek Water Management Plan will be distributed via mailings, the Death Valley National Park Webpage (<http://www.nps.gov/deva/planning>), and regional and local news media. To request being added to the mailing list, please leave your name and address on the voice mail telephone at (760) 786-3256 or write to the address below. Interested individuals, organizations, and agencies wishing to provide any written comments on new issues or concerns should respond to: Superintendent, Attn: Furnace Creek Water Management Plan, Death Valley National Park, CA 92328. All such comments must be postmarked on or before March 14, 2001. If individuals submitting comments request that their name or/and address be withheld from public disclosure, it will be honored to the extent allowable by law. Such requests must be stated prominently in the beginning of the comments. There also may be circumstances wherein the NPS will withhold a respondent's identity as allowable by law. As always: NPS will make available to public inspection all submissions from organizations or businesses and from persons identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations and businesses; and, anonymous comments may not be considered.

Decision Process: Availability of the Draft EIS for review and comment will be announced by formal Notice in the Federal Register, through local and regional news media, the Park's Webpage, and direct mailing. At this time the Draft EIS is anticipated to be available for public review and comment in autumn 2001. Comments on the Draft EIS will be fully considered as an aid in preparing a Final EIS as appropriate. At this time it is anticipated that the Final EIS will be completed in summer 2002. It is anticipated that notice of an approved Record of Decision will be published in the Federal Register in winter 2002. The official responsible for the decision is the Regional Director, Pacific West Region, National Park Service; the official responsible for implementation is the Superintendent, Death Valley National Park.

Dated: November 7, 2000.

Patricia L. Neubacher,

Acting Regional Director, Pacific West.

National Park Service

Notice of Availability of the Vacation Cabin Site Policy at Lake Mead National Recreation Area

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of Availability.

SUMMARY: The National Park Service announces publication of the Vacation Cabin Site policy at Lake Mead National Recreation Area.

Comments: Written comments were made on the draft revision, with a closing date of September 1, 2000. Only one comment was received on the draft revision, that the policy regarding approved exotic plants for use within the recreation area was confusing. The National Park Service has clarified the language regarding exotic plant species.

ADDRESSES: The Vacation Cabin Site policy is available on the Internet at <http://www.nps.gov/lame/concessions/vcs.html>. Requests for copies should be sent to Superintendent, Lake Mead National Recreation Area, 601 Nevada Highway, Boulder City, Nevada 89005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Concessions Program Management at 702/293-8923.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Cabin site lease extensions are expiring in 2000 and 2001. New permits will be issued for a five year period, the maximum length of time allowed by law. This policy will become part of the permit.

There are three vacation cabin site areas within Lake Mead National Recreation Area: Stewart Point (54 sites), located along Lake Mead in Nevada, approximately two miles northeast of Rogers Spring; Temple Bar (32 sites), located along Lake Mead in Arizona, approximately one mile southeast of Temple Bar Resort; and Katherine (35 sites), located along Lake Mohave in Arizona, approximately two miles north of Katherine Landing.

Dated: November 2, 2000.

William K. Dickinson,

Acting Superintendent, Lake Mead National Recreation Area.
