

and other criminal justice professionals a theoretical and conceptual framework, a practical and empirical methodology, and a practical set of tools and protocols for both a process and impact evaluation of restorative justice programs and initiatives. This document shall provide a basis for Phase III of the project, a training curriculum development and pilot delivery in restorative justice evaluation techniques. It is the intent that based on satisfactory completion of Phase I and II products and outcomes, the approval of a cooperative agreement proposal for phase III (development and delivery of a training curriculum) and the availability of funds, an award will be made to the successful applicant from this solicitation for the third phase of the project.

Authority: Public Law 93-415.

Funds Available: The award will be limited to a maximum total of $41,000 ($17,000 for Phase I and $24,000 for Phase II, and includes direct and indirect costs). Project activity for both phases must be completed within 8 months of the date of award. Funds may not be used for construction, or to acquire or build real property. This project will be a collaborative venture with the NIC Academy Division. All products from this funding effort will be in the public domain and available to interested agencies through the National Institute of Corrections.

Eligibility To Apply: An eligible applicant is any state or general unit of local government, public or private agency, educational institution, organization, or individual with the requisite skills to successfully meet the outcome objectives of the project.

Deadline for Receipt of Applications: Applications must be received by 4:00 p.m. Eastern time on Thursday, March 30, 2000. They should be addressed to: Director, National Institute of Corrections, 320 First Street, NW, Room 5007, Washington, DC 20534. Hand delivered applications should be brought to 500 First Street, NW, Washington, DC 20534. The front desk will call Bobbi Tinsley at (202) 307-3106, extension 0 for pickup.
