AGENCY: Maritime Administration, Department of Transportation.

ACTION: Invitation for public comments on a requested administrative waiver of the Coastwise Trade Laws for the vessel REBEL II.

SUMMARY: As authorized by Pub. A request for such a waiver has been received by MARAD. The vessel, and a description of the proposed service, is listed below. Interested parties may comment on the effect this action may have on U.S. vessel builders or businesses in the U.S. that use U.S.-flag vessels. If MARAD determines that in accordance with Pub. L. 105-383 and MARAD's regulations at 46 CFR part 388 (65 FR 6905; February 11, 2000) that the issuance of the waiver will have an unduly adverse effect on a U.S.-vessel builder or a business that uses U.S.-flag vessels, a waiver will not be granted.

DATES: Submit comments on or before May 17, 2002.

ADDRESSES: Comments should refer to docket number MARAD-2002-12093. (3) Intended use for vessel, including geographic region of intended operation and trade. According to the applicant: "It is our hope to cruise aboard SEBIM along the east coast for part of every year and our intention would be to supplement our incomes by chartering SEBIM occasionally as a six passenger day charter vessel or carry overnight guests. As SEBIM is a classic schooner rigged yacht, we would also like to participate in sail training activities such as OpSail or ASTA events from time to time." "Our cruising/charter areas of operation will hopefully be from the Maine coast as far south as the Keys, including the waters of Cape Cod, Long Island Sound, Chesapeake Bay, the Intracoastal waterway, and our home waters of New York City and Sandy Hook Bay."

(5) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on other commercial passenger vessel operators. According to the applicant: "Overall, given the casual and part time nature of our proposed enterprise, I do not foresee any measurable impact on other commercial operators, most of whom operate well above the six passenger limit."

(6) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on U.S. shipyards. According to the applicant: "The occasional presence of another six passenger, uninspected vessel would be insignificant and would certainly have no impact on the U.S. builders of these large passenger schooners or their operators."
