

the supply, distribution, or use of energy. The Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has not designated it as a significant energy action. Therefore, it does not require a Statement of Energy Effects under Executive Order 13211.

13. Technical Standards

This rule does not use technical standards. Therefore, we did not consider the use of voluntary consensus standards.

14. Environment

We have analyzed this rule under Department of Homeland Security Management Directive 023-01, and Commandant Instruction M16475.ID which guides the Coast Guard in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) (42 U.S.C. 4321-4370f), and have made a preliminary determination that this action is one of a category of actions which do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment. This rule simply promulgates the operating regulations or procedures for drawbridges. This rule is categorically excluded under figure 2-1, paragraph (32)(e), of the Instruction.

Under figure 2-1 paragraph (32)(e), of the Instruction, an environmental analysis checklist and a categorical exclusion determination are not required for this rule.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[EPA–R03–OAR–2011–0866; FRL–9723–3]

Approval and Promulgation of Air Quality Implementation Plans; Maryland; Preconstruction Requirements—Prevention of Significant Deterioration and Nonattainment New Source Review; Correction

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule; correction.

SUMMARY: This document corrects errors in the final rule document published on August 2, 2012 announcing EPA's final approval of several revisions to the Maryland State Implementation Plan (SIP) pertaining to preconstruction requirements under the Prevention of Significant Deterioration (PSD) and nonattainment New Source Review (NSR) programs. The correction of these errors neither changes EPA's final action to approve these regulations nor the September 4, 2012 effective date of that final approval.

DATES: Effective Date: September 4, 2012.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Talley, (215) 814–2117 or by email at talley.david@epa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 2, 2012 (77 FR 45949), EPA published a final rulemaking action announcing its approval of revisions to the Maryland SIP pertaining to preconstruction requirements under the PSD and nonattainment NSR programs. In this document, a reference on page 45953 to the approval of Maryland's October 24, 2007 SIP revision submittal was inadvertently omitted. The document also inadvertently provided an incorrect state effective date on page 45954 regarding the addition of an entry to paragraph 52.1070(c) for COMAR 26.11.01.01. Finally, the document inadvertently neglected to remove 40 CFR 52.1073(h) containing the Federally-promulgated "Narrowing Rule" for greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. In its March 19, 2012 notice of proposed rulemaking (77 FR 15985, 15989), EPA stated, "With the regulations submitted in the proposed SIP revision, Maryland has adopted EPA's tailoring approach." In view of its August 2, 2012 final approval of Maryland's SIP revision, EPA has determined that section 52.1073(h) is redundant and should have been removed from the CFR. EPA is correcting that oversight with this corrective action.

In rule document 2012–18656, published in the Federal Register on August 2, 2012 (77 FR 45949):

1. On page 45952, in the first column, the first sentence under "IV. Final Action" is revised to read, "EPA is approving MDE's October 24, 2007, July 31, 2009 and June 23, 2011 SIP submittals as a revision to the Maryland SIP."

§ 52.1070 [Corrected]

■ 2. On page 45953, the State effective date in the third column of the table in § 52.1070(c) for the entry "26.11.01.01" (Definitions) is revised to read "5/16/

11." All other amendments to this paragraph remain unchanged.

§ 52.1073 [Corrected]

■ 3. On page 45954, an amendatory instruction is added to the end of the document to read, "3. In § 52.1073, paragraph (h) is removed."

Section 553 of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B), provides that, when an agency for good cause finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable, unnecessary or contrary to the public interest, the agency may issue a rule without providing notice and an opportunity for public comment. EPA has determined that there is good cause for making today's rule final without prior proposal and opportunity for comment because it merely corrects an incorrect citation in a previous action. Thus, notice and public procedure are unnecessary. EPA finds that this constitutes good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B).

Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Under Executive Order (E.O.) 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993), this action is not a "significant regulatory action" and is therefore not subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget. For this reason, this action is also not subject to Executive Order 13211, "Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use" (66 FR 28355 (May 22, 2001)). Because the agency has made a "good cause" finding that this action is not subject to notice-and-comment requirements under the Administrative Procedures Act or any other statute as indicated in the Supplementary Information section above, it is not subject to the regulatory flexibility provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), or to sections 202 and 205 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (Pub. L. 104–4). In addition, this action does not significantly or uniquely affect small governments or impose a significant intergovernmental mandate, as described in sections 203 and 204 of UMRA. This rule also does not have a substantial direct effect on one or more Indian tribes, on the relationship between the Federal Government and Indian tribes, or on the distribution of
