Your comments are important in bringing to the Council's attention issues and priorities of the disability community. For the May 12 Council meeting, NCD will designate its half-hour of public comment exclusively for receiving information for its upcoming report that examines the impact of extreme weather events and environmental injustice on people with disabilities. In order to develop NCD's recommendations to policymakers, NCD invites you to share your insights in response to the following questions:

1. What are the barriers to accessing federal or state funding after a disaster? What needs to be improved?

2. With the increase of extreme weather events, what are the unique obstacles people with disabilities face in planning, response and recovery from these events?

3. What unforeseen obstacles will the disability community need to address because of the increase of extreme weather events? Recommendations on how those obstacles can be mitigated?

4. What role can the federal government play to mitigate the impact of extreme weather events on people with disabilities?

5. What impact has the lack of environmental justice had on communities, specifically, the prevalence of disability? Can you provide specific instances of the impact to these marginalized communities? (e.g. Territories and American Indian/Alaskan Native lands)

Because of the virtual setting, there will be a hybrid option for submitting public comment. The Council is soliciting public comment by email or via video or audio over Zoom. Emailed public comment submissions will be reviewed during the meeting and delivered to members of the Council at its conclusion. You can also present public comment during the session by clicking the "Hand Raise" button in Zoom and waiting to be called on. If you plan to present over Zoom, please provide advance notice. Privacy Act of 1974: Systems of Records

AGENCY: National Credit Union Administration (NCUA).

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) gives notice of a new proposed Privacy Act system of records. The new proposed system is the Reasonable Accommodations Records System, NCUA-25. This system will include information that the NCUA collects and maintains on applicants for employment and employees who request and/or receive reasonable accommodations from NCUA for medical or religious reasons.

DATES: Submit comments on or before June 1, 2022. This action will be effective without further notice on June 1, 2022 unless comments are received that would result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments by any of the following methods, but please send comments by one method only:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.
- NCUA website: http://www.ncua.gov/RegulationsOpinionsLaws/proposed_regs/proposed_regs.html. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.
- Fax: (703) 518-6319. Use the subject line described above for email.
- Mail: Address to Melane Conyers-Ausbrooks, Secretary of the Board, National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314-3428.
- Hand Delivery/Courier: Same as mail address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Towanda Brooks, Chief Human Capital Officer and Director, Office of Human Resources, or Vanessa Jackson, Reasonable Accommodation Coordinator, Office of Human Resources; or Rena Kim, Privacy Attorney, Office of General Counsel, the National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice informs the public of the NCUA's proposal to establish and maintain a new system of records in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974. The information collected in the NCUA-25 system of records covers the NCUA's collection and maintenance of records on applicants for employment, employees, and other individuals who participate in NCUA programs or activities who request or receive reasonable accommodations or other appropriate modifications from the NCUA for medical or religious reasons. Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits discrimination in services and employment on the basis of disability, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1974 prohibits discrimination, including on the basis of religion. These prohibitions on discrimination may require Federal agencies to provide reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities and those with sincerely held religious beliefs, practices, or observances unless doing so would impose an undue hardship. In some instances, individuals may request modifications to their workspace, schedule, duties, or other requirements for documented medical reasons that may not qualify as a disability but may necessitate an appropriate modification to workplace policies and practices.

The NCUA's Office of Human Resources processes requests for reasonable accommodations from employees and applicants for employment and also processes requests based on documented medical reasons that may not qualify as a disability but that warrant consideration of an appropriate modification to workplace policies and practices in accordance with agency policy. Other NCUA offices may also receive such requests related to programs or activities for which they are responsible. Existing records related to the request, documents supporting the request, any evaluation conducted internally, by a supporting government authority or a third party under contract to the NCUA, the decision whether to grant or deny the request, and the details and conditions of the reasonable accommodation are all included in this system of records.

The format of NCUA-25 aligns with the guidance set forth in OMB Circular A-108.

By the National Credit Union Administration Board on April 21, 2022.

Melane Conyers-Ausbrooks,
Secretary of the Board.
