DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality

Request for Information Regarding Diagnostic Excellence Measurement; Reopening of Comment Period

AGENCY: Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Notice; reopening of comment period.

SUMMARY: The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) invites public comment in response to this Request for Information (RFI) on the development of measures of diagnostic excellence that may be calculated using administrative data or electronic health record (EHR) data. The purpose of diagnostic excellence measurement is to identify potential opportunities to improve the diagnostic process at a health system or geographic level. AHRQ welcomes comments on the importance and usability of existing measures and those that may be under development.

DATES: The comments due date for the notice published on December 12, 2024, at 89 FR 100497, is reopened. Comments must be received by March 10, 2025.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties may submit comments electronically to qisupport@ahrq.hhs.gov with the subject line "Diagnostic Excellence Measurement."

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Questions may be addressed to Judy George, judy.george@ahrq.hhs.gov, (301) 427-1717.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The COVID-19 pandemic led to disruptions in healthcare service delivery and reversed some of the gains made in patient safety over the previous two decades. In 2024, AHRQ on behalf of HHS, officially launched the National Action Alliance for Patient and Workforce Safety (<https://www.ahrq.gov/action-alliance/index.html>), a collaboration between public and private partners to recommit to patient and workforce safety and to eliminate preventable harm in healthcare. Diagnostic safety events are an important contributor to patient safety, with diagnostic errors potentially impacting millions of U.S. residents each year (<https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC5502242/>). Diagnostic error is "the failure to (a) establish an accurate and timely explanation of the patient's health problem(s) or (b) communicate that explanation to the patient" (<https://doi.org/10.17226/21794>). However, in order to improve patient safety, a focus on diagnostic error reduction alone is not sufficient. Efforts are needed to improve the diagnostic process as a whole, with an emphasis on diagnostic excellence.

Diagnostic excellence may be defined as "an optimal process to attain an accurate and precise explanation about a patient's condition" (<https://jamanetwork.com/journals/jama/article-abstract/2785845>). This process should be "timely, cost-effective, convenient, and understandable to the patient." Diagnostic excellence "embraces the six dimensions of quality enumerated by the Institute of Medicine in 2001: care that is safe, effective, patient-centered, timely, efficient, and equitable" (<https://jamanetwork.com/journals/jama/article-abstract/2785845>).

Several efforts have been underway to develop measures that provide information on the state of diagnostic excellence, including research funded by AHRQ and the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation. The AHRQ Quality Indicators (QI) Program develops indicators of healthcare quality and patient safety in a variety of healthcare settings. The QI Program is actively engaged in collecting information on measures that can contribute to diagnostic excellence measurement. AHRQ is considering measures that rely on administrative claims data (for state and regional health departments with limited access to clinical data), as well as electronic health record data (for healthcare systems with full access to clinical data). AHRQ aims to address gaps in diagnostic excellence measurement with a population health lens and with the following goals:

1. Develop a starter set of standardized measures to support population-level diagnostic excellence surveillance.
