

student performance, especially for the students at the lower end of the achievement gap. The Commission will examine the disparities in meaningful educational opportunities that give rise to the achievement gap, with a focus on systems of finance, and recommend appropriate ways in which Federal policies could address such disparities.

The agenda for the Commissions' first meeting will include a welcome by Department officials followed by a roundtable discussion focusing on the strategies for accomplishing its mission as stated in its charter. The agenda will also include a presentation on school resource equity and the development of a work plan for the Commission. Due to time constraints, there will not be a public comment period at this meeting, but individuals wishing to comment may contact Stephen Chen via e-mail at stephen.chen@ed.gov.

Individuals interested in attending the meeting must register in advance because seating may be limited. Please contact Stephen Chen at (202) 453-6624 or by e-mail at stephen.chen@ed.gov or tracy.harris@ed.gov. Individuals who will need accommodations for a disability in order to attend the meeting (e.g., interpreting services, assistive listening devices, or materials in alternative format) should notify Stephen Chen at (202) 453-6624 no later than February 14, 2011. We will attempt to meet requests for accommodations after this date but cannot guarantee their availability. The meeting site is accessible to individuals with disabilities.
