Security Holder Director Nominations

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Notice of roundtable discussion; request for comment.

security holder director nominations. Copies of the proposing release are available on the Commission's Web site at www.sec.gov. Seating will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. The roundtable discussion also will be available via webcast on the Commission's Web site at www.sec.gov. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The roundtable discussion will concern the Commission's proposed rule amendments regarding security holder director nominations.¹ As more fully described in the proposing release, the proposals would, under certain circumstances, require companies to include in their proxy materials disclosure regarding security holder nominees for election as director. The proposed rules would not provide security holders with the right to nominate directors where prohibited by state law. Instead, the proposed rules would create a mechanism for disclosure regarding nominees of long-term security holders, or groups of long-term security holders, with significant holdings, to be included in company proxy materials where evidence suggests that the company has been unresponsive to security holder concerns as they relate to the proxy process. The proposed rules would enable security holders to engage in limited solicitations to form nominating security holder groups and engage in solicitations in support of their nominees without disseminating a proxy statement. The proposed rules also would establish the filing requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for nominating security holders.

Dated: February 9, 2004.

By the Commission.

Deputy Secretary.
