

interchange fees for exempt and covered issuers.⁴

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR 3064 surveys are authorized by section 920(a) of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, as amended by section 1075(a) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. This provision requires the Board, at least once every two years, to disclose aggregate or summary information concerning the costs incurred and interchange transaction fees charged or received by issuers or payment card networks in connection with the authorization, clearance, or settlement of electronic debit transactions as the Board considers appropriate and in the public interest. It also provides the Board with authority to require issuers and payment card networks to provide information to enable the Board to carry out the provisions of the subsection. The FR 3064 surveys are mandatory.

The Board is required to release aggregate information from responses to the FR 3064 surveys. The Board additionally releases, at the network level, the percentage of total number of transactions, the percentage of total value of transactions, and the average transaction value for exempt and non-exempt issuers obtained on the FR 3064b because it can be calculated based on information the Board already releases and may be useful to issuers, merchants, and policymakers in choosing payment card networks and assessing the effects of interchange regulations. The information contained in individual responses to the FR 3064 surveys is nonpublic commercial or financial information, which is both customarily and actually treated as private by the respondent. The Board may therefore keep such information confidential pursuant to exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Current actions: On July 13, 2022, the Board published a notice in the Federal Register (87 FR 41718) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, with revision, of the Interchange Transaction Fees Survey. The comment period for this notice expired on September 12, 2022. The Board did not receive any comments. The revisions will be implemented as proposed.
