k. Background: On March 30, 2006, Portland General Electric Company (PGE) filed a settlement agreement signed by it and 32 other parties, including federal and state resource agencies, Indian tribes, and non-governmental organizations to address issues associated with the relicensing of the Clackamas River Hydroelectric Project. The settlement agreement includes proposed license articles for the protection and enhancement of water quality, fishery resources, terrestrial resources, recreation resources, land uses, project area aesthetics, and cultural resources.

On July 21, 2008, PGE filed a modification of Proposed License Article 14 to make the settlement agreement consistent with its proposal in a June 28, 2008, application to Oregon Department of Environmental Quality for certification pursuant to section 401 of the Clean Water Act.
