

Strategy for Fiscal Years 2021–2025¹⁴ and the DHS Environmental Justice Annual Implementation Report for Fiscal Year 2022.¹⁵

(2) What other strategic goals should DHS include in the next Environmental Justice Strategy to advance environmental justice?

(3) How can DHS better address environmental justice concerns through its environmental review of the impact of operations, financial assistance to State, local, and Tribal governments, and regulatory permitting activities?

(4) In addition to the nine program areas identified in DHS Directive 023–04, Environmental Justice, are there other DHS programs where DHS could incorporate environmental justice policies and considerations?

IV. Written Comments

You may respond to some or all questions listed in this RFI. Please ensure your response is clear and indicate which question you are responding to. You may also include links to online materials and should ensure all links are publicly available. Each response should include:

- (1) the name of the individual(s) and/or organization(s) responding;
- (2) policy suggestions that your submission and materials support; and
- (3) a contact for questions or other follow-up on your response.

Please note that this RFI is only a planning document and should not be construed as policy, a solicitation for proposals, or an obligation by DHS or the Federal Government.

V. Review of Public Feedback

DHS encourages all potentially interested parties—individuals, associations, State, local, Tribal, and Territorial governmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, and private sector entities—to respond. DHS may use the feedback received to help further environmental justice initiatives, consider reforms, and update the Department's Environmental Justice Strategy in accordance with recent Executive Orders on environmental justice and equity. This RFI is used solely for information-gathering purposes, and DHS is not initiating a rulemaking at this time. Public input in response to this RFI does not bind DHS to take any further actions, including publishing a formal response or initiating a recommended change. DHS will consider the feedback received and may make changes or process improvements at its sole discretion.

Thomas D. Chaleki,

Chief Readiness Support Officer, Department of Homeland Security.

collection across these six award programs. Each award recognizes awardees for their innovation and commitment to raising industry standards and increasing the quality of life for low- and moderate-income households. Below is a brief description of each of the six award programs.

The HUD Secretary's Award for Public-Philanthropic Partnerships

The Public-Philanthropic Partnerships Award recognizes excellence in partnerships that have transformed the relationships between the public and philanthropic sectors and led to measurable benefits in housing and community development for low- and moderate-income families. By strengthening the connection between HUD and philanthropy, these awards highlight the power of collective impact that can be achieved through public-philanthropic partnerships between government entities and foundations.

The HUD Secretary's Awards for Healthy Homes

The Healthy Homes Awards promote the innovation and partnerships needed to create healthy homes and communities for low-income residents by working across the health, environment, and housing sectors.

HUD Secretary's Award for Excellence in Historic Preservation

The Secretary's Award for Excellence in Historic Preservation recognizes developers, organizations, and agencies for their success in advancing the goals of historic preservation while providing affordable housing and/or expanded economic opportunities for low- and moderate-income families and individuals.

HUD Secretary's Planning Award

The Secretary's Planning Award honors excellence in community planning that has led to measurable benefits in economic development, employment, education, or housing choice and mobility for low- and moderate-income residents. The award stresses that communities demonstrate how integrative planning led to tangible results, such as expanding the supply of available affordable housing, employment opportunities connected by effective transportation systems, or a host of community-empowering strategies. The award recognizes the planning discipline as an important partner in how creative housing, economic development, and private investments are used in—or in tandem with—a comprehensive community development plan.

HUD Secretary's Housing Design Awards

The Secretary's Housing Design Awards recognize excellence in affordable housing design, community-based design, participatory design, and accessibility. These awards demonstrate that design matters and provide examples of important benchmarks in the housing industry.

HUD Secretary's Award for Tribal Housing Impact

The Secretary's Tribal Housing Impact Award celebrates excellence and innovation in addressing housing and community development needs within Native American communities. By honoring Tribes and Tribally Designated Housing Entities (TDHES) significant housing and community development related achievements, HUD is fostering sustainable and vibrant Tribal communities for generations to come.

HUD Innovation in Affordable Housing Student Design and Planning Competition

The Innovation in Affordable Housing Student Design and Planning Competition advances design and production of livable and sustainable housing for low- and moderate-income people. This competition invites teams of graduate students from multiple disciplines to submit plans in response to a real-world affordable housing design issue. The competition encourages research and innovation in affordable housing, increases practitioner capacity to produce more livable and sustainable housing for low- and moderate-income communities through best practices in building design and construction, and fosters cross-cutting teamwork within the design and community development process.
