

approved Memoranda of Agreement as required.

(b) Any person or entity which does distribute packaged spirits to any person or business located within the boundaries of the Colville Indian Reservation at a time when such person or entity is not validly licensed to do business shall be in violation of this Chapter and in violation of the Memorandum of Agreement and/or other applicable law.

(c) Persons or entities holding licenses for the sale of packaged spirits under this section shall be required to subject themselves in writing to the civil jurisdiction of the Colville Confederated Tribes and its Tribal Court for the purposes of this Chapter.

6–2–13 Taxes and Fees

(a) A tax amounting to precisely the same amount of tax collected by the State of Washington on the same or similar packaged spirits item shall be assessed pursuant to the provisions of an approved Memorandum of Agreement or fully executed Liquor Compact or with the State of Washington.

(b) Taxes collected by the Liquor Administrator shall be held in the Liquor Account.

6–2–14 Sovereign Immunity Preserved

Nothing in this Chapter is intended or shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation. The Administrator, its staff, any manager or employee of the Tribes, or Tribal Enterprises is specifically prohibited from attempting to waive the inherent sovereign immunity of the Colville Confederated Tribes without the express written consent of the Colville Confederated Tribes.

6–2–15 Other Business

A licensee under this Chapter may conduct other business simultaneously with the management of a liquor products outlet, subject to applicable laws and regulations. The other business may be conducted on the same premises.

6–2–16 Operating Without a License

No person shall operate a liquor product outlet or tavern within the boundaries of the Colville Indian Reservation without first obtaining a current and valid license; persons in violation of this section shall be considered to be in violation of all federal Indian liquor laws and regulations as well as in violation of this Chapter.

6–2–17 Violations

(a) Pursuant to the provisions of the Memorandum of Agreement regarding enforcement, the Administrator of the Colville Confederated Tribes shall have the authority to enforce this Chapter.

(1) Such enforcement must conform with Chapter 1–5 Colville Tribal Civil Rights Act.

(2) Such enforcement must conform with Chapter 2–1 Criminal Actions, Chapter 2–2 Civil Actions, and Chapter 2–3 Infractions; Field Bonds; Other Civil Offenses and Forfeitures.

(b) Non-payment of Taxes:

(1) Any person or entity within or doing business within the boundaries of the Colville Indian Reservation who does not pay the taxes required to be paid under this Chapter shall be proceeded against in the Tribal Court of the Colville Confederated Tribes.

(2) The Tribal Court of the Colville Confederated Tribes is empowered to seize, attach, and forfeit to the Colville Confederated Tribes any property belonging to any person found by the Tribal Court to have failed to pay applicable fees and taxes due and owing under this Chapter; provided that the amount of property forfeited shall not be of a wholesale value greater than the amount of applicable fees or taxes alleged or found to be due and owing.

(3) Persons sued under this Section by the Administrator shall be entitled to a full evidentiary and adversarial hearing before the Tribal Court of the Colville Confederated Tribes, in accordance with Chapter 1–1, Chapter 1–2, Chapter 2–1 (if applicable), Chapter 2–2 (if applicable), and Chapter 2–3 (if applicable) of the Colville Tribal Code, before any order or forfeiture may be issued. Persons sued under this Section shall have the burden of proving that they do not owe any fees or taxes or that they have been assessed a greater amount of fees or taxes than they lawfully owe under this Chapter.

(c) Other Violations: The Administrator shall bring all persons or entities suspected to have violated any provision of this Chapter, except non-payment of fees or taxes due, to the attention of appropriate tribal or state law enforcement officials. With regard to Colville Tribal members alleged to have violated a provision or provisions of this Chapter other than non-payment of fees or taxes, the Tribal Court of the Colville Confederated Tribes shall have jurisdiction over the matter.

(d) Violation of this Chapter may result in the loss of an entities liquor license, or prohibition of the individual/entity from obtaining a license in the future. The Administrator is empowered to revoke the liquor license of any entity who is in violation of this Chapter so long as due process is afforded to the individual/entity pursuant to Chapter 1–5 of this Code.

6–2–18 Other Agreements

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if the Colville Tribes enters into a liquor compact with the State of Washington, relating to alcohol wholesaling, distribution, or retail sales which are not subject to an existing tribal-state Memorandum of Agreement or compact, the Tribal Code will control over conflicting provisions.

6–2–19 Effective Date

This Chapter shall take effect 30 days after approval by the Secretary and publication in the Federal Register.

6–2–20 Severability

If one or more provisions of this Chapter is/are deemed invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Chapter will remain in full force and effect.
